

NORTH TORRANCE TATTLER

By MRS. HELEN ALLISON
MElio 4-2430

The appearance of the Barber-shop chorus at the monthly meeting of the North Torrance Civic Improvement association recently caused much comment. These melodious gentlemen offer the highest in entertainment. This reporter was interested in the knowledge that the barber-shop quartet organization, known as the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber-shop Quartet Singing in America, originated in my home town, Tulsa, Oklahoma, 14 years ago. In these years, 20,000 have joined. A very pleasant evening was spent listening to such songs as "Coney Island Baby," "Little Joe," and wondering what happened to "Goodnight Irene." The Deacons, consisting of Howard Foster, Dean Lougee, Bill Bartholomew, and Bud Bartholomew (leader of the entire group) were superb.

A more recent quartet calling themselves—the "Four Colonels of Corn," gave out with "Chinese Moonlight." This foursome included Al Ewalt, Herb Allen, Francis Lehr, and Doug McElroy. Among the 20 men who rendered such harmony was our own Ed Collins of Crenshaw Crest who only recently joined the group. Anyone caring to investigate this chorus is invited to drop in on Thursday evenings at the Torrance High School.

Our area might well be proud of our candidate for queen, Sandy Gulbranson, at the Coronation Ball held at the Torrance Civic Auditorium April 7. Sandy was lovely in an olive green taffeta strapless formal with a net stole. Each princess wore a half crown of sparkling rhinestones and a corsage of gardenias. Pat Morola was crowned Miss Torrance of 1951. Better luck next time to Sandy who we still maintain has all the qualities of a queen.

The Tawasi group of Campfire Girls under the leadership of Betty Johnson held a slating party at the Gardenia Roller Rink recently. Each girl asked a friend and a total of 30 young skaters had a delightful evening. These girls are knocking on your doors selling candy during the city-wide candy sale. Watch for them.

Leroy Downing, QMM 3rd class, spent a weekend at home visiting his family. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bates, and his brother, Jerry Downing, of 17039 Glenburn, before sailing on the U.S.S. Pasig.

Brownie Troop 1368, under Helen Taylor, invested 14 girls in the Brownie Pool Ceremony. Among those invested were Anna Louise Gustafson, Donna Lee Sisley, Linda Cruz, Linda Jane Geronimo, Lynthis Cale, Paulette Taylor, Sharron Ervin, and Susan Wilson. Many of the girls were ill with the usual chicken-pox and measles. These will be invested later. Those mothers attending were Mrs. Gustafson, Mrs. Alice Cruz, Mrs. Wanda Ainsworth, Mrs. Helen Sisley, Marie Swanson, Mrs. William Wilson, and Mrs. Smith. Refreshments were enjoyed by all.

There was much excitement, up and down the street when George Johnson, electronics technician, first class, came home on a 17 day leave to 17231 Della avenue. George docked last week on the famous "Big Mo," the Battleship Missouri.

Until last December, George was Mr. Average Citizen, living at home with his wife Jane, and working at the telephone company in Los Angeles. He was in the Navy Reserves. At home, the war doesn't seem so real, but the crew of this "Big Mo" know better, for they have seen the evidence. Inasmuch as George had covered a lot of territory recently, this reporter felt these two vital questions of the day could be asked. "How does the war situation look, and what is your opinion of the removal of MacArthur?" Johnston answered the first by saying it was difficult to see how an all-out war could be averted and the second by saying "MacArthur will be very hard to replace—he commanded a lot of respect." Welcome home, George; we all hope your stay is a pleasant one.

After a long siege of virus, measles, mumps, and chicken-pox among our children, comes now the pink-eye! This I haven't heard of since I was a small child. Ann Beth Blount, 17033 Wilkie, daughter of Councilman Willys Blount, has been home from school for the past week. Her sister Mary Margaret has been ill with a cold, but so far no pink eyes. As long as you have to have something, it might as well be different.

The teenage class of the Community Church spent last Sunday at Griffith Park. A lunch was spread and the group explored the park and later went horseback riding. Sunday School Teacher Myrtle Dyer and her husband Dave accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Richter enjoyed (?) the company of Jimmie Babb, Herry Allison, Bob Kelly, Bob Bowen, and Carol Sidley.

A "Big Affair" is on the docket at McManis Hall for next Saturday evening. The North Torrance Civic Improvement Association will be the main attraction.

ation will hold its monthly dance. Dave Dyer, chairman of the ways and means committee, invites one and all for a gala evening.

The Cub Scouts dance held at Verburg's Rumpus Room last Saturday was the scene of much gaiety. A full house was reported. The nite-club atmosphere was very unique with the tables spread with black and white checked tablecloths. The crowd cheered at the antics of Dave Dyer and Paul Callico. Coffee and doughnuts were served. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bates, of 17039 Glenburn avenue, entertained Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Enos of Wilmar over the weekend. Perhaps you all know by now that Janice has finally landed in the "big money." According to her, it's quite a sensation even if you know it belongs to the bank of America—where she has been employed as a teller for the past three weeks.
