More than one third of the $15,000 sought to complete construction of the $1. Andrew's Episcopal Church's new educational unit has been subscribed, it was announced this week.

"Actually, only a relatively small number of the persons expected to help with the financing have been contacted," according to Mrs. Robert Sleeth,* member of the building committee.

Thirty volunteer workers have been making what contacts they could, she reported.

Now under construction, the addition to the church property will close May 7.
