Local Sergeant Gets Warrant Officer's Bars

Master Sergeant James J. Catena, 1322 West 218th street, traded his Army chevrons for the red and gold shoulder insignia of a warrant officer (j.g.) when he took the oath of office April 18 at USA and USAF Southern Recruiting District Headquarters in Los Angeles.

The 36 year old Torrance career soldier has been personal sergeant major at recruiting headquarters here for the past three years.

W. O. (j.g.) Catena will report for duty at Sixth Army Recruiting Headquarters, Presidio of San Francisco, following a short leave at his wife's family home in Martin's Ferry, Ohio.

An ardent booster for Torrance, warrant officer Catena says "I've seen a lot of the world during my 10 years' service, but I couldn't want a better place to live than Torrance." He has made his home here with his wife, Helen, and his daughter, Beth, 4.

Customers' Corner

Courtesy doesn't add anything to the high quality or superior value of the food you buy at A&P.

But it is the ingredient that makes your shopping trip a pleasant experience rather than a tiresome task.

That is why the men and women who operate your A&P work hard not only to give you prompt and efficient service, but to be courteous and friendly, as well.

They know that even the pressures of rush-hour shopping are no excuse for rudeness.

If they ever fail to make your trip to A&P a pleasant one, they want to know about it. Please write:
