Well, this is the first retraction necessary since we started this column. We stated last week that Mayvel Butler was Civil Defense Warden of Zakon Road. Sorry, it should have been Vanderhill Road. And we may as well say now, also, that Mr. and Mrs. Huss are the alternate wardens of that block.

Next Thursday there will be another meeting of our Civil Defense group. Anyone who feels they can help, especially someone from upper Zakon Road, please come to 5233 Vanderhill Road. The meeting starts at 7:30 p.m. and has always turned out to be both interesting and sociable. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Butler are hosting.

Betty Mitchell of Zakon Road had the Stitches Chatter-Club meeting at her home Wednesday. Each of the ten women attending brought a different kind of food. Leads one to wonder where the "Stitch" comes in.

It gives us great pleasure to tell this. Many neighbors are doing what they can to help Connie Priestly with her twins. And here's laurels to Bon O'Melia for cleaning her yard for her.

The Scout Circus night that was rained out is planned for May 12 at 7:30. Hollywood Bowl. Tickets are still available from any Boy Scout. This is the night our own Cubs appear, remember?

We have one of our neighbors going into the service. Donna Hatfield, graduating from Torrance High this month. She is joining the WAF on June 21. Good luck to you, Donna.

Mr. Peter Noble of Doris Way, one of our new neighbors, recently flew to Washington, D. C., on business.

And speaking of new neighbors, welcome to the Heights Mr. and Mrs. William Koen, 5237 Vanderhill Road. We'll be waiting to announce the arrival of the little one!

Mr. Jack Milson received a beautiful gold-cloth bedspread, which of course was presented to his wonderful wife. It was some sort of prize for meritorious service at Sears in Inglewood.

Have you seen a stray cat around? Jim and Barbara Clark are missing a large orange-yellow tomcat with a big plume tail. They are offering a reward. The address is 5125 Zakon Road.

Mrs. O. Hatton of Vanderhill Road had a harrowing experience last week. She required the assistance of the dentist and nurse to get home after special dental surgery.
