Rev. Bob Herald Prays For Sick At Revival Meet

Evangelist Bob Herald, presenting a series of revival meetings at the Torrance Foursquare Church, will preach and pray for the sick at the meeting to night at 7:30.

The revival meetings are held nightly except Monday and Saturdays.

Friday night starting at 7:30, Rev. Paul Ansley from Don Lago will assist in the service.

On Sunday, Mother's Day, the Sunday School Department will present special numbers in tribute to mother. The service starts at 9:30 a.m. A remembrance will be given to the oldest and youngest mother present during the Sunday morning worship service which starts at 10:45 a.m.

At the evening service on Sunday starting at 7:30, Evangelist Herald will preach upon the subject, "Passing the point of no return."

The public is invited to attend all meetings.

Christian Church Planning New Edifice In Torrance Gardens Area

Completion of negotiations for the purchase of a three-acre site for the new First Christian Church to be located at Eldorado street and Maple avenue was announced this week by Rev. Cecil J. England, pastor.

The cash deal involved more than $20,000, according to Rev. England, and ended negotiations which have been pending for the past two years.

The object of relocating is to make the church a neighborhood church, serving the religious needs of the entire western part of the city where there is no other church. When the present construction program is completed in Torrance Gardens there will be over 800 new homes, all of which will be in the immediate neighborhood of the new church location. By the time these homes are occupied there will be approximately an addition of more than 2500 people to the population of the city. It is for this reason that the church has been working and planning to relocate in this unchurched area, Rev. England stated.

The church has selected a building committee and a building fund committee, both of which are gathering data relative to the future building program of the church. The building committee is composed of John Steinbaugh, chairman; Ed Smith, vice-chairman; Carl Steele, Howard Hulzing, Gladys

Nazarene Church To Observe Day Honoring Mother

Mother's Day services will be observed at the Nazarene Church, 1501 West Carson, Sunday, May 13. A short program by the Sunday School will honor the oldest mother and the largest family present, during the Sunday School hour starting at 9:45 a.m. A Message to Mothers will be given by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Penner, in the morning worship hour, 11 a.m. The sermon theme for the 7:30 p.m. service will be "Pentecost and Its Meaning."

Pietzschke, Mabel Sexton, Walt Levy, Art Barnett, Glenn Stock, Maxine Jensen, Burke Mosley, Earl Eckert, and Elmer Moon.

The building fund committee consists of Luther Mumford, chairman; Al Posner, vice-chairman; Gordon Walker, John Conrad, Howard Foster, Joe Lukes, Florence Viellenave, Mrs. Ray Lougee, Mary Rood, Ed Pietzschke, Dr. W. E. Grubbs and Dr. B. L. Easley.

Both committees expect to present plans to the congregation in the near future about the building program and the financing of the new building.

The present church building at Engracia and Arlington avenues probably will be put on the market.

Story of Creation Set as Christian Science Topic

The true and false accounts of creation will be contrasted in the Bible Lesson on "Adam and Fallen Man" in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Romans (5:19): "As by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous."

A Scriptural selection from I Corinthians (15:22) declares: "For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive."

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says, "Jehovah declared the ground was accursed; and from this ground, or matter, sprang Adam, notwithstanding 'God had blessed the earth for man's sake.' From this it follows that Adam was not the ideal man for whom earth was blessed. The ideal man was revealed in due time, and was known as Christ Jesus" (p. 338).

Central Set To Observe Mother's Day

A full program of activities is planned by the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, Marcelina and Arlington avenues, in observance of Mother's Day.

Parents are invited to visit the Sunday School Department in which their children are enrolled, at 9:30 a.m.

At the 11 o'clock worship service Rev. U. S. Schauer will bring an appropriate message entitled "The Church in Her Home."

At the 7:30 evening service the Central Church Choir will present a musical program with the theme "Mother's Religion."

At 7 p.m. the Methodist Youth Fellowship is sponsoring a family night service for the whole church with three color motion pictures of beauty and inspiration which the whole family will enjoy, Rev. Miller said.

Dual Observance Planned Sunday By Methodists

The morning worship service at the First Methodist Church of Torrance this Sunday will give recognition to two special days, the modern observance of Mother's Day and the historical Day of Pentecost. In the observance of Mother's Day appropriate recognition will be given to motherhood with special music by the choir. The minister, Rev. Clarence E. Miller, will preach on the theme "A Good Mother-In-Law."

In commemoration of the historic day of Pentecost, the local Methodist Church will join with Methodist churches throughout the Southern California-Arizona Conference in making Pentecost Sunday a day for the in-planting of new members, with the minimum goal of 3000 souls, which was the number received on that first day of Pentecost after Peter had preached his great sermon in the upper room in Jerusalem.

A nursery for the care of infants and young children is provided during the church service. Church school for all ages begins at 9:30 a.m.

At 7 p.m. the Methodist Youth Fellowship is sponsoring a family night service for the whole church with three color motion pictures of beauty and inspiration which the whole family will enjoy, Rev. Miller said.

Summer Classes to Open At El Camino on June 26

Registration for summer school classes at El Camino College will be held Monday, June 25 in the college personnel office from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., according to an announcement made by J. S. Sheffield, director of student personnel. Classes begin June 26.

To be eligible to enroll in a class, the individual must be over eighteen years of age or a high school graduate.

A wide variety of classes will be offered during the six-week summer session, with the majority of classes being presented in the afternoon and evening. Included will be classes in music, auto shop, wood shop, ceramics, laboratory sciences, English languages, mathematics, speech, engineering, social sciences, political science, art, gym and many other fields.

According to Sheffield, summer session offers a splendid opportunity for students who due to some irregularity of their high school or college programs have fallen behind their regular class group.

Kettler Kapers

Our local Red Cross officials are seeking women who are able to give two hours a week volunteer services to staff their office. Let's help them out. If you are able to type, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 12 noon, or 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., phone Torrance 1524 for appointments. You will be helping not only the Red Cross, a nationwide organization, but our city of Torrance as well. Don't hesitate, phone now!

Congratulations to Lloyd and Louise Fullerton, of 1824 Marinette street, upon the arrival of their second child, a son, whom they have named Sammy Joe. He was born May 1 at Torrance Memorial Hospital weighing nine pounds, one and a half ounces. The Fullertons have a daughter, Darlene, one year old.

Another little boy, who claims May 1 as his birth date lives close by... he's Stevie Miller, at 1823 Marinette street, who celebrated his fourth birthday with a gay party. His guests were Gary and Pamela Allen of Hawthorne, Delby Wooster of Harbor City, Michael Powers of Inglewood, Cindy Streit, Roddy Clark, Karen McGuire, Denny Simmons, Claudia and Vivian Carlson, Billy and Danny Hoy, and brother Timmy Miller, all of Torrance. Their respective mothers attended too, with his special guests, his grandmothers.

Newcomers in our tract to whom we wish to extend our warmest welcome are Mr. and Mrs. Willard Reich and daughters, Donna Gay and Marcia Kay, formerly of Compton. They redecorated their home at 1803 Reynosa drive and moved in last week. Mr. Reich is associated with a South Gate firm, Sears Coldspot, manufacturers of refrigerators.

Mrs. Iva Jean Manning and son Randy, of 1723 West 238th street, enjoyed a weekend in San Francisco visiting with their husband and father, Herbert Manning of the U. S. Navy. Manning is awaiting orders for overseas duty. A short time ago he had leave from Guam when their youngest son was critically burned.

Customer's Corner

How accurate can you be? In some manufacturing businesses, for instance, they have to allow for a slight margin of error.

But when it comes to weighing a customer's purchase or adding up her bill we aren't satisfied to be "almost accurate" at A&P.

Our skilled clerks know that they must give you full weight, full measure and charge the correct price.

That is why we can mark the price plainly on every item as well as on your cash register receipt.

You will help the men and women of A&P maintain their well-earned reputation for accuracy by promptly reporting any time we might be in error. Please write:
