Torrance Man Returns From Far East Duties

Twelve months in the Far East aboard an anti-aircraft light cruiser is enough for one time, according to Raymond R. Nieves, an electronics technician, first class, with the Navy. His wife, Jeanette, agreed.

Nieves returned to Torrance this week after spending the past year on board the U.S.S. Juneau. The ship and her crew left here May 1, 1950 for the Far East and returned to Long Beach this week.

The first American warship to take part in action against the North Koreans, the Juneau was credited with sinking 11 vessels during surface attacks. In support of United Nations ground troops, her guns destroyed enemy shore installations at Sam Chock, Chong Dong and Chumonchin.

A former Torrance High School student, Nieves and his parents moved to San Francisco before World War II. Nieves graduated from Mission High School there and attended junior college in the Bay city before returning to Torrance a few years ago. He enlisted in the Navy at San Pedro in 1946.

Nieves and his wife are moving this week to San Diego, where he is being transferred.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel A. Robidoux, of 1012 Crenshaw boulevard.

Insurance Agent Becomes 63rd Kiwanis Member

Bill Garrity, Farmers Insurance district agent, recently became the 63rd member of the Torrance Kiwanis Club.

The insurance agent was an Army pilot during World War II, making flights over the infamous "Hump" in the CBI theater. He and his wife, Katharine, and two children live at 1327 Acacia avenue. Enjoying flying, golf and fishing Garrity's hobbies leave Mrs. Garrity pretty much a flying, golf and fishing widow.

His membership in the local service club was sponsored by Darwin Parrish. Paul Loranger introduced the member to the club. He was inducted by Edwin B. Brown.
