Graduation Lists Include Many Torrance Students

College students were returning to Torrance this week for the summer vacation, many of them bringing home a sheepskin as their reward for years of study and work at one of California's universities.

Among those returning with degrees after their names was Miss Frances Barrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barrington of 2368 Torrance boulevard. She received a bachelor of arts degree in English at Mills College in Oakland in ceremonies last Sunday.

From the University of California at Santa Barbara came Frank G. Dominguez Jr., of 2013 Arlington avenue, with a degree in physical education; and Bruce D. Rehboldt, of 1601 El Prado, with a degree in education.

Graduated from Whittier College last Saturday was Miss Tillie Markham, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. V. H. Markham, of 23317 Hawthorne boulevard.

From the University of Redlands comes Daniel E. Moon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer S. Moon, of 1024 1/2 Anapola avenue. Moon was a group major of arts degree in English at Mills College in Oakland in ceremonies last Sunday.

New Rotary Head Guest of Rich Maharaja in N.Y.

Russell Lund, president-elect of the Torrance Rotary Club was back in Torrance this week after a whirlwind tour of New York City as the guest of the multimillionaire Maharaja of Indore.

Enroute to Atlantic City to attend the convention of Rotary International, Lund visited with Wynn Castled, a fraternity brother, and friend of the wealthy Indian potentate.

SHOW STOPPER

Although he had to step aside for a young man, Lund claims to be the only president of the Torrance Rotary Club to stop the show at Madison Square Garden.

Lund explained to the manager he was looking for his friend the Maharaja. The manager took action to have the Indian ruler paged on the Garden's public address system.

"If you don't mind Mr. Lund I would like to introduce this young chap first. Incidentally do you know Arthur MacArthur, General MacArthur's son?" the manager asked the local service club president.

HE FOUND HIM

After a few moments chatting with the general's son the manager interrupted the roller derby to announce that Mr. Lund was looking for his friend the Maharaja of Indore who promptly stood up and waved a hankie to indicate his whereabouts in the crowd of 20,000 persons—or at least so Lund claims.

Castled was a house guest of the local insurance broker and Mrs. Lund last year when he returned from a tiger hunt on the Maharaja's huge Raremahah in India.

RETURNS BY AIR

The Lund's left May 22 by air for the east where Mrs. Lund visited her mother Mrs. Stella Long in Columbus, Ohio. She returned to Torrance yesterday.

Lund continued on to New York, Washington, Atlantic City, and to Shenandoah, Iowa, his hometown. There he visited with his mother for three days before winging back to Torrance—the planned city.

ELEVATOR TRAVEL

Elevators in New York City daily travel about 95,000 miles and carry an estimated 10 million passengers.

Grandmother To 19 Passes

Mrs. Ana Marie Myers, 63, a grandmother to 19 children, died at her home at 2811 Gramercy avenue on Sunday. She had lived in Torrance but three weeks.

Her remains were shipped to Maryville, Missouri, by Stone and Myers Motuary, Rosary was recited on Monday at 8 p.m. in the chapel of the local mortuary.

Surviving are her husband Edward N. Myers and a daughter, Catherine Dougan of Torrance; three other daughters, Mrs. Mildred Gray, Mrs. Margaret O'Riley, and Sister Melina, all of the Middle West; and four sons, Francis of South Gate; Clarence and Raymond of Maryville; and Pvt. Richard Myers, U. S. Army now stationed in Japan, and three brothers and three sisters in the east.

DATES DIFFER

George Washington was born February 11 by the Julian calendar, but that date becomes February 22 under the Georgian calendar.
