Bluebirds in Bid For League Title

A ball club that won its first game in the league last Sunday is all that stands between the Torrance Bluebirds and a chance at the championship of the Long Beach Municipal Baseball League.

The Bluebirds will meet North American here Sunday afternoon in the last game of the regularly scheduled league in an effort to break a three-way tie for the top spot.

As a result of last Sunday's games, Torrance is now tied with the Long Beach Merchants and Ocean View for the leadership. The three-way tie developed last Sunday when the Ocean View team from Huntington Beach knocked over the Merchants, and the San Pedro Hod Carriers handed Torrance its second defeat.

WATERS RETURNS

Joe Waters, who has been playing professional ball until recently, returned to Torrance just in time to receipt for a loss at the hands of the Hod Carriers.

Two runs scored in the first inning for the Carriers then Waters shut them out for the rest of the game. The Bluebird batters, however, were unable to solve the slants of Don Gye for anything but a few scattered singles, while 15 of them struck out trying to find his curve ball. In other games last Sunday, the 2347th AFMTC beat AAA-1 Plumbing 15-5, Ocean View beat Long Beach Merchants 7-4, Sam Mannis Furs beat Wilmington Eagles 9-7, and North American beat Trembley-Johnson 6-4. It was North American's first win.

Sunday's games were slated to be the last of the league, but all games were rained out April 29, and are being played off next Sunday.

In the first game here Sunday, the Torrance Juniors will meet the Lynwood Eagles again in the second round of play. They beat the Eagles in first round.

Hawthorne Raps Juniors 9-4

Jack Crabtree's Hawthorne ball club slowed the Torrance Juniors to a walk last week with a 9-4 defeat over the locals on the Hawthorne diamond.

Limited to two hits, the Juniors were able to squeeze two runs in during the first inning and again in the fourth.

Second baseman, Jim Murphy collected both hits, a single in the fourth and a double in the sixth.

Tom Vanderpool started the pitching chores for the Juniors, but was pulled in the fourth after five runs had scored on three hits and four walks.

The loss was the second for the Juniors in the Centinela Valley Junior Baseball league. Culver City beat them in the opening game June 3.

City Slates Tennis Tourney For Juniors

Second call for tennis players was issued this week by Coach Rex Welch and the Torrance recreation department in an effort to round up some participants for the Fourth Annual National Parks and Playground Junior Tennis Championships to be held in Arcadia August 8 through 12.

Since the tournament is being held in Southern California, local net aces will be permitted to enter the competition directly without going through a series of elimination tourneys. However, a qualifying tournament will be held at the Torrance High School courts starting Tuesday, July 3.

Competitors in the Arcadia tournament will be provided housing, transportation to the courts, entertainment, and a barbecue, according to recreation department officials. Arrangements are being made for meals at a nominal fee.

There will be singles and doubles play for both boys and girls. No contestant may be over 17 years old.

Young tennis hopefuls interested in entering the qualifying tournament here may contact Welch or Miss Doris Avis at the High School playground June 30.

Camou Tosses 5-Hit Ball To Red Birds

Torrance's entry in the Centinela Valley Junior Baseball league took on a little added weight last Sunday by knocking off the loop-leading Harvard Red Birds 3-0 when the teams met for the first time on the Torrance diamond.

Paced by the five-hit pitching of Charlie Camou, who walked one and struck out eight, the Juniors never let the Red Birds have a thing to talk about until the sixth inning when Joe Occator doubled and went to third base on a long fly to the outfield. He got no further.

The Red Birds unleashed their No. 1 pitcher, Bob Glomboske, for the fray, but the Juniors got nine hits off him during the seven-inning affair.

Shortstop Bill Crawford and Catcher John Spiller led the hitting parade against Glomboske, each getting two hits in three tries.

The Juniors met Culver City here last night in the start of the second round of play and will meet Lynwood here next Sunday at 1:30. Torrance lost to Culver City the first time, but beat Lynwood.

Fishing 'Fine' For 146 Anglers

April fishing may have been neither better nor worse than other seasons for 146 California anglers—but it was more onerous. The 146 were arrested for angling without license and paid a major portion of the $13,067 in fines collected for illegal hunting and fishing activities during the month.

Forgetting to bring along that important item of fishing equipment—the license—led all other causes of arrest, the Division of Fish and Game reported.

Other violations adding to the total of 440 arrests included 91 summons for fishing in closed waters or taking more than the limit. Eighty errant sportsmen were apprehended for bagging illegal clams and abalones, and 17 picked up for taking deer out of season.

Two jail sentences, of 100 days and 10 days each, were ordered. Only one defendant was found not guilty in the 30-day period.
