Your former Seaside Riviera correspondent, Betty Lou Sparks, is the mother of a brand spanking new baby girl. Our congratulations to our most able predecessor.

Delighted to receive the news from Jean and Dick Cottrell of their recent addition, Richard Frederic Jr. by name. Young Mr. Cottrell weighed in at eight pounds, seven ounces last April 28.

Mrs. Herschel Springer hosted a delightful party including Rancheitos Mrs. Byron Johnson, Mrs. Dorsey Gruver, Mrs. Quin Johnson, Mrs. William Schmitz, Mrs. Arnold Stohman, Mrs. Joseph Merola and Mrs.

Copenhagen (now occupying the Malens' house). The offspring of same were entertained in the yard and plied with soft drinks and cookies, leaving the mothers free to thoroughly enjoy themselves.

Mrs. Paul Roettger flew to Las Vegas last week for a vacation, accompanied by daughter Caroline and son Timmie.

Caught a glimpse of Chris and Jim Hall taking off for a Sandpiper affair. Chris was enchanting in a black strapless formal high-pointed with a huge red flower at the neckline, and red evening slippers. To complete the ensemble a floating

Camp Haugen, Japan—"Well home is where we hang our ties." That's what men of Torrance's own company A, 578th Engineer Combat Battalion, were saying jocularly last week as they moved into this camp near Hachinohe, Japan, at the northernmost tip of Honshu.

The local company had been stationed at Camp Matsushima, near Sendai, until its transfer. The unit training program currently underway will continue at this camp.

The engineer unit was stationed at Torrance Ball Park before its return to active duty last fall. It is a part of Southern Command's 40th Infantry Division, now in Japan to provide security for that important logistical base.

black net stole over her shoulders.

Before an arbor replete with variegated ivy and ivy geraniums, the incoming officers of Las Vecinas were installed in a charming ceremony last week. The new officers, with their Colonial bouquets in the club colors of aqua and cocoa brown made an apt picture as Mrs. Mary Underwood, first vice president of the California Federation of Women's Clubs oficiated. Mrs. Leonard Doyle and her committee were lavishly praised for the lovely decorations. Incoming President Mrs. Frank Hanover received a presidential pin with Las Vecinas engraved upon it, and in return presented Mrs. Claude Ferrel, outgoing president, with a past president's pin. Mrs. Ferrel received also a Lazy Susan in blonde wood as an expression of appreciation from her board.

Outstanding was Mrs. Lola Gettman's rendition of two selections, with Mrs. William Beckman accompanying her. Among those present were Mrs. Paul Barth, together with look-alike sister Lois. Lois is creating much confusion in the Barths' neighborhood because of her striking resemblance to Frankie. The guests of Mrs. Pearce Venable and Mrs. J. Powell were at tractive Mrs. N. Penhalow, mother of Mrs. David Hurford.

Here's the good word from Concord way . . . from the former resident of Sharynne lane, Mary Conover Longshore. Mary and Allan are knee-deep in a painting and papering, siego, and are extremely happy in their new home.

An expression of appreciation from the parents to the Seaside School who made possible the attendance of the summer school children at the Shrine Circus last Thursday. Needless to say, the small group will always remember this event.

 By MRS. VIRGINIA JONES
 Lomita 1256-J

A future fireman for our fair city is the new little baby boy born Monday, June 11 at Torrance Memorial Hospital to Jerry and Jean Loy of 2116 Middlebrook road. Their son weighed 8 pounds, 12 ounces and is the fifth living generation on his father's side. The Loy's have a daughter, Linda, who is 3 years old. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John R. Wyckoff of Harbor City and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy of Pomona. Jerry Loy is a Torrance fireman.

A very enjoyable picnic was held last Sunday in Averill Park, San Pedro for Harry Setzer and his wife Thelma of Walnut street as Harry is reporting for duty with the U. S. Navy tomorrow (June 29) as chief storekeeper. Former employees of the San Pedro Naval Supply Depot, 25 in all, organized the affair as a farewell party for Mr. Setzer. They presented him with a lovely gift and after the picnic they played canasta and recalled many fond memories during the time they spent at the supply depot.

Back from a wonderful vacation are Gene and Margaret Beavers and children Mary and Lloyd of 2122 Middlebrook road. With them is Gene's mother, Mrs. Medley Farrand, who will visit for two weeks. They motored to Hutchinson, Kansas and Omaha, Nebraska where they visited their relatives. They report that the weather was terribly warm during their entire trip, but otherwise a grand trip was had.

Mrs. Thelma Setzer's Walnut street home was the setting for a recent canasta party. Guests were Mesdames Jewel Holmes, Jean Stone and Leona Wimmell of Kettler Knolls, Lois Devrient of San Pedro and Margaret Howe of Lomita. Lovely refreshments were served by the hostess.

A most enjoyable vacation was experienced by A. L. and Jo Devenish, and son Joel of 2088 Middlebrook road last week. They motored to Boulder City and toured Boulder Dam, thence to Zion National Park and on to Provo and Salt Lake City, Utah, where they visited Mr. Devenish's relatives. Returning home they stopped at San Francisco, where they were guests at the home of Jo's relatives.

Home this Sunday is Mrs. Etta Hidenour from El Reno, Oklahoma, mother of Mrs. Maxine Long of 1924 Middlebrook road and James Ridenour of 23115 Huber street. She had been visiting in Oklahoma for a month, but is returning to live with her son James and his wife.

A former resident of Kettler Knolls, First Lieutenant Melvin I. Long of 2309 Western avenue, was listed as "killed in action" in the June 23 casualty list. Lt. Long a year ago was called back into the Army and his wife Edna and two small children are now living in Cypress. We of Kettler Knolls wish to extend our deepest sympathy at this time to Mrs. Long and close relatives. It is indeed tragic news for their many neighbors and friends.
