To Discuss Seaside Park Site at Meet

Invited to discuss a site for a park near the new Seaside School with the City Council Tuesday night was Truman Browne, developer of a new home tract near the school.

Browne, owner of the land had proposed to the council that they purchase a five-acre site consisting of 30 lots for $3000 an acre. The council invited Browne to meet with the council in agenda meeting and with Frank Carpenter, director of recreation for the city.

Kettler Kapers

By MRS. VIRGINIA JONES
Lomita 1256-J

Did everyone enjoy a jolly Fourth? Certainly hope so with the weather a little bit warmer ... means many a pleasant evening. Taking a pre-Fourth holiday were Neil and Maxine Hopper of 1765 Calamar street, who happily left the young u/s home and gaily toured the San Diego County Fair at Del Mar last weekend. They spent Sunday at Tijuana, too!

At the M. E. Bottroff home on Falcona avenue, guests from "back east" are enjoying their stay. Mrs. Mary Roy from Ames-bury, Mass., Mrs. Marian Roy and son Robbie of Stoneham, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Roy and daughter Nita are visiting. They are relatives of Mrs.

Bottroff's and have attended the Seventh Day Adventist Camp in Lynwood last week. Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Roy are at present on their way home.

Congrats to Vernon and Mary Baldwin of 2815 Martha street upon the arrival of their first child, a charming daughter they have named Colleen Ann. Her arrival on June 15 was recorded at Torrance Memorial Hospital.
A few days later, "way down in Miami, Florida, her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bray announced the arrival of their own baby daughter, weighing as much as Colleen, seven pounds. Grandparents are long time residents of Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Bray and Mrs. Louise Baldwin of Los Angeles.

Don Kelley of Walnut street is home once again following a rush call to be at the bedside of his mother, Mrs. J. E. Kelley of Wichita, Kansas. He flew via TWA and spent 10 days there.

One of the many youngsters experiencing a week of camping is Bobby, son of Millie and Walt West of Reynosa drive. He's at Round Meadow camp with other YMCA kids from Torrance. Last Friday Dick Gresham of Huber street assisted in the registration of about 112 boys. Gresham is a volunteer leader of the Gra-Y Club, spending his leisure hours with "the gang."

While we're on the subject of the YMCA, mothers of youngster between the ages of 8 to 11 years and 12 to 15 years will be happy to hear of the Summer Fun Club which starts July 16 and ends August 10.
This program offers the boys tournaments of ping-pong, horse shoes and archery with handicraft and special athletic games Monday through Friday at a minimum fee of 50 cents each week. The boys spend the day at the "Y" and take their lunch, and on Fridays they will take a trip to some interesting spot in Southern California.

Visitors from Sacramento last week were Mr. and Mrs. James E. Dooley, parents of Mrs. Anita Ransom of 1768 Calamar street.
They visited a week with Anita, son-in-law Maurice and family, enjoying their stay.

Chief Radioman Stanley Lascink has received a commendation for meritorious service aboard the destroyer Eversole in Korean waters. He is the husband of Mrs. Edna Belle Lascink, 1820 Calamar street.

Home from a 10-day vacation are Mrs. Marie Foote and children David and Linda of Reynosa drive, who accompanied Mrs. Clyde Henderson and two children Nicky and Nancy of El Segundo to Cuyamaca Rancho State Park and Fallsville, where they enjoyed the "great outdoors."

We were happy to hear that Mrs. Ellen Baerman, who formerly resided at 2004 Reynosa

Sacramento Is Christian Science Topic

The healing effects of prayer will be discussed in the Sunday lesson-sermon on "Sacramento" in all Christian Science churches.
Jesus' words from John's Gospel (4:23) constitute the Golden Text: "The hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth."

The prophet Isaiah writes, "Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free. . . . Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? . . . Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily; and thy righteousness shall go before thee" (58:6-8).

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says, "Whatever naturalizes worship hinders man's spiritual growth and keeps him from demonstrating his power over error" (p. 4).

Missionary to China To Speak to Methodists

Rev. E. J. Winans, for many years a Methodist missionary in China, will be the guest speaker at the First Methodist church here Sunday morning. He will speak to the adult department during the Sunday School hour beginning at 9:30 a.m. His subject will be "The Universal Christ."

Rev. Winans will again speak at the 10:50 a.m. service on "The World for Christ," according to Rev. C. E. Miller, pastor. M. M.
Schwab, lay leader of the church, will introduce the guest.

Rev. Winans left China shortly before the Communists came into power, according to Rev. Miller, and has an intimate knowledge of conditions as they now exist.

diva, became the mother of a lovely baby boy recently. She and husband Bob and their children now live in Redsea.

For those who haven't heard the "Firehouse Five" of Torrance play at the Saturday night dance parties at the hall on Carson street, you've really missed something! Their music is "tops." The boys sing, too.
From Kettler Knolls is Don Davis, who doubles on the bass fiddle and guitar; Gordon Jons-rud on the trumpet; Bill Russell strums a guitar and there's Ed Katzorke, who harmonizes with the boys. Gordon Northington is another trumpet player. Sam Dial on the bass fiddle and Al De Cigaran on the drums. Their soloist, Teddy Doll, a Narbonne Hi graduate, shakes you sit up and listen, too! All in all, you can enjoy quite an inexpensive evening with the local boys. Try it some Saturday night.

Congratulations to F. D. and Marie Gartrell of 1815 Marinette street, who became proud parents of a little son, Dirk Alan, born June 13 at Torrance Memorial Hospital. He has a sister, Jodie, seven years old.
