Body Shipped To Iowa for Final Rites

Funeral services for Mrs. Mable Aerie Kale, 64, of 19031 South Main street, will be held in Des Moines, Iowa, Sunday.

who, her body was shipped following her death here July 6.

A resident of Torrance for the past five years, Mrs. Kale had been ill since last December, according to her family. She was a native of Iowa.

She leaves her husband, Ora Earvey Kale, a son, Howard J. Kale, and a daughter, Bernice V. Jones, all of the home address. Three granddaughters and one great-granddaughter also survive.

Arrangements here for sending the deceased to Iowa were handled by Stone and Myers Mortuary.

'Bridgebuster' Back

George W. Felker, aviation machinist's mate, third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Felker of 18800 Prairie avenue, has returned to the Naval Air Station, Alameda, Calif., with Carrier Air Group 19 which destroyed 136 enemy concrete and steel bridges while operating from the aircraft carrier USS Princeton in Korea.

One attack and three fighter squadrons comprise the group which lost 14 pilots in action. In addition to the spectacular aerial torpedo attack against the Hwachon Reservoir Dam gates, the group flew 5960 sorties against the Communists.

James H. Webb Named Honorman At Naval Center

James H. Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Webb, of 1910 Plaza Del Amo, has successfully completed a two weeks course of instruction for reserve recruits at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, and has been selected honorman of his company.

The honorman is selected by the company from five candidates whose outstanding work in recruit training has been recognized by the company commander.

Factors considered in selecting Webb honorman include leadership, sportsmanship, military bearing, initiative, response to orders, cleanliness, a good shipmate, and an outstanding individual in all phases of recruit training.

Webb received a certificate and an identification bracelet in recognition of his achievement.
