Call has gone out from the Red Cross for pocket book editions for the service men. I'm sure that all of us are anxious to do as much as possible to help the fellows, so let's go through our reading material and rout out all those pocket books which we are through reading. If you have some to donate call Red Cross at TE 3-4447 and they will tell you where to leave them. If this is not convenient, call this reporter at LO 2635-W and we will figure something out in order to get the books to their destination.

Many thanks are extended to the many people in this community who were so generous when the kidnap breakfast was held by the Senior Girl Scouts on Tuesday, July 10. The girls cleared over $42. Approximately eighty were served breakfast, and many who were unable to come willingly gave contributions. Several PTA mothers helped plan, cook, and serve the meal. Due to the success of this project, the girls have almost reached their goal, which is the financing of their week's trip to Camp Catalina beginning the fourth of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Christain, Niece avenue, announce the coming marriage of their son, Wesley, on the fifth of August at the Greenwich Wedding Chapel in Long Beach. The bride-elect is Mary Katherine Wilberts of Redondo Beach. Wesley, who is stationed in California with the U.S. Army, will have a nine day leave for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Olsen, Niece avenue, and their son Henning, left Saturday, July 7, on a motoring vacation trip to Oregon and points of interest along the coast. They intend to visit friends in Oregon. Hope they enjoy themselves.

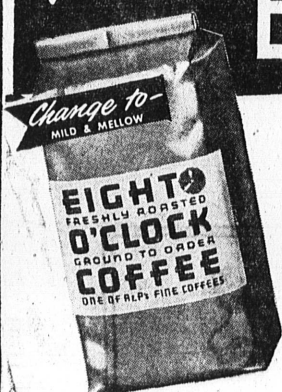

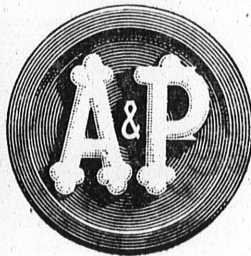

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mosley, Ward street, are visiting Mr. Mosley's mother, Mrs. E. H. Miller of Long Beach while Mr. Miller is in the hospital. May we take this opportunity to wish Mr. Miller a speedy recovery.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to the family of little Tara Lee Beck three and one-half month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Beck. Tara died at the family home, 3223 Raintree avenue on July 4.

LIKE A CIRCUS... Was the atmosphere at the two-day Kitchen Carnival staged by McMahon's Furniture Store on Friday and Saturday night of last week. Shown is part of the crowd which attended the event to witness the awarding of an O'Keefe and Merritt gas range, a Motorola Television set, and many other free gifts. Charles Markland, store manager, says McMahon's are already preparing for next year's event.—(Herald Photo).

Infant Son Of Pair Dies

Funeral services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMahon, of 1502 Crenshaw boulevard, were held Saturday morning at the Stone and Myers Chapel. Rev. Paul Wenske, pastor of the First Lutheran Church here, officiated at the rites.

The infant died a few hours after birth at Community Hospital in Long Beach.

Interment in Green Hills Memorial Park followed last rites.

Stone and Myers Mortuary handled funeral arrangements.

Funeral services were held last Saturday afternoon for Mrs. Letha Jane Howard, 77, a resident of Torrance for the past 27 years. She died July 11 at her home at 2265 Torrance boulevard.

A native of Bolivar, Missouri, Mrs. Howard had been living with her daughter, Mrs. Roba Ray, at the Torrance boulevard address.

She leaves besides her daughter, a granddaughter, Mrs. Herbert Marshall, at the home address; and a brother, Walter Minner, of Fontana.

Burial in Inglewood Park Cemetery followed the final services conducted by Rev. Lawrence Warren of the First Methodist church of Alhambra.

W. A. Cooper, George Goff, L. C. Conner, J. Kammner, and Otto Batsch served as pallbearers. John Hertert was the soloist.
