Barber Shop Singers Set to Get Charter

"At long last, we're going to get our charter officially," said Herb Allen, president of the Torrance chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America.

Everything has been set for the sponsoring San Gabriel chapter of the SPEBSQSA to present the charter to the new Torrance club Saturday night in ceremonies beginning at 8:15 at the El Camino Campus Center.

Russ Stanton, founder and first president of the San Gabriel chapter, will act as master of ceremonies, and Reddie Wright, fourth western district president of the organization, will install the officers of the chapter.

The Torrance and San Gabriel choruses will sing, and several quartets will be on hand with the individualized versions of the old favorites, Allen said.

COLONELS SING
To get warmed up for the affair, the Four Colonels of Corn—made up of Allen, Al Ewalt, Doug McClay, and Francis Lehr—sang at the Optimist Club meeting Monday evening.

Today evening, the chorus went to Gilmore Field, home of the Hollywood Stars, and sang with a combined chorus from Southern California before the Hollywood-Oakland game. The boys all say they'll be in fine voice for Saturday night's program.

MEETS THURSDAY
The Torrance chapter meets each Thursday evening at the High School and the rolls are always open to new members.

21, named Bonnie Sue.

Speaker to Review Pension Legislation

A review of what the California State Legislature did about old age and blind pensions during its recent session will be presented at a meeting of the California Institute of Social Welfare to be held Friday, July 27, 3:30 p.m. C.I.O. Hall, 1316 Border avenue.

Speakers for the Institute will report on the outcome of anti-pension bills which were introduced to throw thousands of needy aged and blind folks off the pension rolls.

The fight which was waged against these anti-pension measures by the Old Folks' Lobby, maintained at Sacramento by the Institute, will be told.

Admission to the meeting will be free. The public is invited.

Home Run King In Torrance

It has been reported that living in our midst right here in Torrance is a real home run king. Answering to the name of Jack Vnik, he made four home runs yesterday right off the bat—with his truck... running from home to home making estimates (cheerful, smiling, low) for his upholstery work.

Mr. Vnik, diligent owner of the Torrance Upholstery Shop, makes a hit with each of his home runs. He says his aim is to please and his aim is good. Call now for a home run at no "valuation" to your "for" an estimate on your upholstery, slip covers, or drapery work. All hits and no errors. Your satisfaction is guaranteed. The phone please Torrance 1157.
