

Hi-Lites Of Seaside Heights

Well, the streets of our Heights are really in a mess, and driving and parking on them is a problem. But, funny thing, I haven't heard anyone complaining. Must be because we have all been waiting so long for our sewers that the small matter of turning up streets is actually a pleasure.

Congratulations are in order for John Hunter of 5224 Doris way. Last Sunday, August 19, he took Miss Frances Brandner to be his "truly fair" bride. They were married at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Hawthorne. After a short honeymoon, he will bring his Mrs. back to the Heights and they will make their home at his present address. Welcome to our neighborhood, Mrs. John Hunter, we're so glad to have you.

Welcomed also to the Heights is little Barbara Lee, born August 4 at the Torrance Memorial Hospital and weighing 6 pounds, 9 ounces. She is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil L. Magg of 5258 Zakon. Her two sisters are Linda Dierne, age 4 and Jacqueline Ann, age 2.

Mr. and Mrs. William Day, of 5232 Doris way, have had quite a time of it recently. Bill joined the Army Reserves at the outbreak of Korean difficulties and was to have reported to Camp the 8th of this month, but his physical showed a hearing deficiency, so he has been put on the "inactive" reserve list. Then his wife, Odessa, found she had a serious anemic condition and had to "take" two pints of blood at the Magnolia Hospital. Each pint was diluted with a pint of salt solution. It took 4 hours and 20 minutes for the first transfusion and 3 1/2 hours for the second. However, both of them feel fine.

Ronnie Leising, age 4, of 5315 Bindevald road, had a bad accident last week. He decided to chin himself on the clothes pole and slipped, catching his finger in some of the wire line and ripping it open. It required two hours of medical attention and 25 stitches to close the wound. And also, poor kid, he had to have four penicillin shots.

It is always nice to introduce new neighbors, so be sure and let me know when someone new moves close to you. On Doris way, at 5229, the new neighbors are Mr. and Mrs. John K. Middlebrooks. They just moved here from our neighboring area, Hollywood Riviera. Mrs. Middlebrooks works for Northrop.

This introduction is, unfortunately, a farewell, because of a job transfer. But Mr. and Mrs. Stan (Geraldine) Evans and their three children, Gordon 10, Suzanne 8 and Byron 6, have been living at 5268 Zakon for a few months. They are from Florida, but found our location here and our neighbors very nice, and they are really sorry to have to move.

Just a small reminder here for board members of the PTA of Seaside. There will be a meeting at school in teacher's room September 5, at 9:45 a.m.

Did you know that it is not too late to sow certain seeds for blooming this fall? Marigolds, cosmos, phlox and zinnias may be sown now in an open bed, and will furnish fine cut flowers in a few months. Using a fine spray, water often enough to keep surface damp, but do not soak.

Playgrounds to Close

All eight of the city's summer playgrounds will close after tomorrow, as the ten-week summer program ends, according to Recreation Superintendent Frank Carpenter. Play centers affected are Seaside School, El Retiro Park, Walteria Park, Fern School, Torrance Park, Torrance High School, McMaster Park and North Torrance School.

Mother Dies 4 Days After Daughter's Reception

A cerebral hemorrhage following a large wedding reception given for her daughter proved fatal last Thursday to Mrs. Nita Mills Vail, mother of Mrs. Margaret Woolley. Mrs. Vail gave a reception at the Beverly Hills Hotel for her daughter and new son-in-law, Boris Woolley, local attorney and past president of the Torrance Optimist Club, on Sunday August 12. On Tuesday she became ill and passed away 48 hours later.

daughter, include twin sons, Al of Westwood and Russell, who lives on the Vail ranch at Paulina, and a sister, Louise Mills of Los Angeles.

Services were conducted by Rev. John Bryant of the St. Alban's Episcopal Church of West Los Angeles. Interment in Forest Lawn followed last rites conducted in the Church of the Resurrection in Forest Lawn. The rites were conducted at 10 a.m. last Saturday.

BACK FROM KOREA

Robert J. Thompson, electrician's mate, first class, USN, husband of Mrs. Edna M. Thompson of 1707 West 234th street, arrived in San Diego recently aboard the attack cargo ship USS Winston, after 10 months' duty in the Far East. The Winston is a veteran of amphibious operations at Inchon, Wonsan, and Hungnam, Korea.
