

Party Fetes Miss Dabbs

Janice Dabbs' tenth birthday was the occasion for a delightful children's party when her mother entertained at their home, 1640 Juniper avenue.

A pink and turquoise color theme was followed for the party table and a festive birthday cake was served. Games followed the opening of Janice's lovely gifts.

Guests were Linda and Norman Rowe, Dolores Roberts, Carol Cook, Carol Kelly Joan Donald, Barbara Krauser, Kathy Hogan, Sharon Wiethoff, North Hollywood; and Janice's sister and brother, Marilyn and Steven.

W.J. Goukers Announce Engagement of Daughter

Announcement of the engagement of their daughter, Betty Jean, to Mr. R. W. Browning, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Browning of 1020 Acacia avenue was made to a group of friends entertained Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gouker of 24402 Park street, Waltham.

Arrangements of pink amaryllis and gypsophila graced the buffet and refreshment table and suggested the color theme for the party.

Games were enjoyed with Mrs. R. Sullivan and Miss Beverly Browning as prizewinners.

Betty and Bob were graduated from Torrance High School in the class of 1949 and he was employed with American Radiator and Standard Sanitary Corporation before he enlisted with the U. S. Navy. Based at San Diego, he is assigned to Transportation Service. No wedding date has been decided by the popular young couple.

Present at the announcement party were Messrs. and Mmes. W. W. Browning, Paul Jones, L. B. Barrett, Ed Polston, R. Deurloo, Shirley, B. Riggs, C. Bryan, G. McKinley, Mmes. Carol Beaudry, Louise Crowther, R. Sullivan, C. Getchel, Mmes. Beverly Browning, Billy June Barrett, and Connie Breitfield, Messrs. Larry Fisher and Chuck Brennan.

Stork Shower Compliments Young Matron

A stork shower honoring Mrs. Kenneth Lockman (Naomi Edwards) was given recently in the patio of Mrs. Warren Edwards, Long Beach home with Mrs. Daisy Gray as cohostess. The gift table was covered with a white cloth decorated with pastel figures carrying out the baby-shower theme, as were the napkins and nut-cups for the refreshment trays. The flowers and shrubs in the yard made a beautiful setting for the lovely affair.

Those enjoying the party were: the honoree and her mother, Mrs. M. J. Edwards; Mmes. Florence Violenave, Julia Lougee, Pat Wolf, Marilyn Harris, all of Torrance; Mrs. Elsie Dennis, Mrs. Jewel Langford, Mrs. Miriam Dennis and Marilyn, Mrs. Catherine Edwards, Mrs. Phyllis Edwards, Mrs. Mary Edwards, Mrs. Pat Danforth, Mrs. Barbara Edwards, Misses Thelma Lane and Jane Edwards of Los Angeles.

MISS RITA McOSKER

McOskers Reveal Nuptial Plans of Daughter, Rita

Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. McOsker of 2208-D Cabrillo avenue announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Rita, to Mr. Norman Hanson, son of the John Scollards of San Jose.

The bride-elect attended school in Torrance and was graduated from Bakersfield High School before entering the employ of Motor Vehicle Department, Sacramento. Her bridegroom-to-be is employed with the engineering department of the State of California. They plan to make their home in Sacramento.

Their wedding will be solemnized at 11 a.m. Monday, September 3 in First Baptist Church.

Los Fiestadores Enjoy Lure of 'Island' Setting

When the S. S. Los Fiestadores docked at Trade Winds Cove, Palos Verdes, Thursday night, crew members and guests enjoyed dining and dancing in a South Sea Island atmosphere.

The dinner was set around huge open fireplaces with table decorations of colorful flowers and fruits of the islands. The marble dance floor overlooked the ocean and surrounded by palm trees, made the island setting complete.

Hosts for the occasion were Messrs. and Mesdames R. D. Bolen, Jackson S. Moore, John K. Steinbaugh, J. Parke Montague, and W. B. Levy.

Guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Delbert J. Thomson, Homer St. Martin, Charles Wallace, Bob Mobry, all of Torrance; Burt Merrill, Montebello; and Harvey Warren, Santa Monica.
