By GRAYCE RYCKMAN and MERLE HOLSTIN
FRONTIER 5-1779 or FRONTIER 5-3718

I guess you'll notice that Merle Holstin's name has been taken off the column. So we both want you to know it is only because she had too much else to do right now to help with writing it. However, any news you want to tell her, she will forward to me.

I stopped by Florence and Jack Heptig's house last Saturday and found all the family very thrilled about two things. One is that a young couple, just recently from England and second cousin of Florence, were coming to stay with them until they can get settled near here. They are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frankowski. The other thrill, especially for Patti, Bud and Melinda, are nine coal black week-old cocker puppies of Sandy, their dog.

There was never a more surprised person than Anita George as she stepped into her surprise "Shower for the Baby." It was held at the home of Bumble Coward two served sandwiches and their complements, and cake and coffee. Attending were Jo Jurisch, Dorothy Dwyer, Gertrude Lumsden, Ruth Wadlingham, Bunnie, of course and Grayce Ryckman. Unable to attend but sending their best wishes were Esther Johnson, Max Shields and Mary Sokolowski.

Another party was held last week on Vanderhill, supposedly a joint birthday celebration for Bobbie Priestly and Craig Herbst, each two years old. Terry O'Melia and Nancy Dahlman were their guests, but Thelma O'Melia and Norma Dahlman were guests of their mothers. So it turned out to be a real nice get-together for them too.

Bernadette Weber of Zakon had a birthday last week too, and was greatly pleased and surprised to get a beautiful home-baked cake from her neighbor, Hazel Hulsey.

Incidentally the Hulseys, Hazel and Durwood and their four children just returned from a short visit to San Diego, where they "took in" the famous zoo.

I understand Mr. and Mrs.

Danick have also just returned from vacation, but I was unable to find out where they had been.

Back from Vancouver, B. C. are the Filgians of Bindewald. They had a wonderful two-week trip but each of them had a cold when they got back. Joan said it was so hot and dry that the peat on the ground was constantly smoldering and the smoke from it causing travel hazards.

Speaking of travel hazards, a person begins to wonder if he should obey the signals and stop, or just get out of the way. Wally Sokolowski of Bindewald stopped the other day and was hit hard in the left rear. He, fortunately, was not hurt, but it will cost the insurance company plenty to straighten the left side of his car and replace the fender and gas tank.

A similar accident happened to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillips of Macafee. Only it was a big gasoline truck that rammed them. They, too, were uninjured.

After all these past months of waiting for placement, Don Harrelson of 5272 Bindewald left last Thursday evening for duty in Mississippi. He is a lieutenant in Electronic Countermeasure. Annette, his wife, was getting in practice with the lawnmower Sunday.

Boy Scouts of Troop 726 are urged by the Scoutmaster, Floyd Holstin, to start attending meetings regularly again. There is one tonight at 7 o'clock at El Retiro Park. Plans for the big District Scout Camporee in October and the Junior Leaders Conference this month will be discussed.

Returning to their respective homes on Macafee this week are Harold Phillips Jr., who has been in Santa Monica and Buzz Gravin, who spent all summer in Nevada on a ranch.
