Evangelist to Lecture Sunday Night on Communism's Doom

"The Bible Predicts Communism's Doom" is the subject of a lecture to be given Sunday night at 7:30 at the Grand Theatre, 1522 Cravens avenue.

Evangelist D. R. Guild, spokesman for the Guild-Hardy evangelistic company which is inaugurating the campaign, stated that "seven words of Bible Prophecy that will smash Russia's dream will be revealed."

The evangelist stated further that "from ancient Bible predictions, the outcome of the tangled world situation, and how and when permanent world peace will be established, will be pointed out."

The lecture will be illustrated on the stage as the discourse progresses. There is no admission charge and the public is invited.

Services will be held every Sunday and Friday evening for the duration of the campaign. The topic for Friday, September 21, will be "Did a Good God Make a Bad Devil?"

D. R. GUILD
". . . Reds are Doomed"

The purpose of the meetings will be "to give the meaning of our times in the light of Bible prophecy, and to present Christ for the crisis hour in which we live."

Music will be under the direction of Gerry Hardy of London, England. Jessie Hamm and Durline Ents will be at the piano keyboard and the organ console.

The meetings are one unit of a world-wide crusade for Christ and the Bible being presented in hundreds of languages throughout the world.

PLANNING CAMPAIGN . . . Formulating plans and layouts for a series of full-page advertisements aimed to show the relationship of the local churches to the community of Torrance are these ministers who are discussing the matter with Mayor Bob L. Haggard (seated, right). Pictured are Rev. Freeman A. Brunson, Rev. Arthur E. Bello, Rev. Clarence E. Miller and Rev. Homer Miller. Seated in center is Rev. Paul Wenske, president of the Torrance Council of Churches which is sponsoring the series of releases. (Herald photo).

Church Series To Start Soon

To appear soon in future issues of this paper is a series of releases sponsored by the Torrance Council of Churches which aim to show the relationship of local churches to the community life of Torrance, according to Rev. Paul Wenske, president of the council.

The series of advertisements sponsored by many local business, professional and industrial firms will aid the many Torrance churches in their challenge to the public to consider the value of the church not only in the Kingdom's work but in the everyday life of Torrance.

Speaking of the campaign, Mayor Bob L. Haggard said:

"Support of churches is sound business. The more pronounced the influence of the churches the less cost and difficulty in governing any populace."

"Aside from the manifest spiritual values, churches are tremendous civic assets to the community," he said.

Praising those who were helping make the educational campaign possible, Rev. Wenske said:

"Those who assist in sponsoring the series will be performing a public service of merit in encouraging others to think seriously about their obligation to their churches."

It is the desire of the Torrance Herald to cooperate with the churches in bringing them into their proper focus in the local picture by publishing the series.

Sermon Topic Announced by Rev. Wenske

Rev. Paul Wenske's sermon topic at the First Lutheran church Sunday will be "As Children of God We Love Our Brethren," he announced this week.

Text for the sermon was taken from 1 John 3, 11-12: "Whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother."

"We, as Christians, love all men as our fellow creatures and do all manner of good to all men as opportunity offers, but especially do we love and do good to our spiritual fellow men who are of the household of faith," Rev. Wenske pointed out.

The sermon topic will be used at both the 8:15 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. worship services. Sunday School for all ages will be held at 9:30, the pastor said.

Large Attendance Expected this Sunday

With vacation over, a large increase in Sunday School and church attendance is expected on Sunday morning at The First Methodist Church of Torrance, according to Rev. Mr. Clarence E. Miller. The Sunday School which meets at 9:30 a.m. provides classes for all ages from the nursery class up through the older adult group. The church service of worship begins at 10:50 a.m. with Vernon Robinson, Minister of Music, playing the organ and directing the choir.

In answer to the present day questions arising out of the uncertainty in world affairs, Rev. Miller will preach on the theme: "Is War God's Judgment?"

Missionaries To Tell of South America

Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Knapp, who have recently returned from Colombia, South America, after spending more than six years there in the missionary field will be guest speakers at the Torrance Four-square Church at 1207 El Prado Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The couple will tell how they went through a revolution and persecution, and will tell how they pioneered the work in the oil town of Barranca Bermeja.

Colorful slides of the mode of living and the customs of the Colombian people will be used to illustrate the talk. Curious of the country will be exhibited by the missionaries who will dress in costumes of the natives.

Organization of Church Planned For Sept 23

Plans have been formulated for the official organization meeting of The Waleria Community Methodist Church on Sunday, September 23rd at 7 p. m. The organization service will be in charge of Rev. Clarence E. Miller minister of The First Methodist Church of Torrance, which is sponsoring the new organization. He will be assisted by his wife who has been speaking each Sunday morning at 10:30. This service and all other services of the church will be held in the clubhouse at the Waleria Park, which is the temporary meeting place of this new organization.

The first service of The Waleria Community Methodist Church was held on Easter of this year. The next Sunday a Sunday School was organized with "Teacher Kirk as superintendent. Praying services have been held regularly each Sunday with Mrs. Miller, and various laymen of the First Methodist Church speaking. Attendance at the Sunday School and church services has continually increased. Several weeks ago a Methodist Youth Fellowship was organized which immediately received the response of the youth of the community, and an attendance of 30 was reported for last Sunday night. The youth work is in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cramer and most of the meetings have been held in their home at 24240 Los Cadenas avenue.

J. A. Beasley has been elected as Lay Leader in charge of making plans for the organization. Beasley reports that plans for the next few Sundays are as follows: next Sunday September 16, there will be baptisms of infants and young children. The following Sunday, Sept. 23 at the 10:30 a.m. service there will be a baptismal service for youth and adults.

School Leaders to Speak During Sunday Services

The First Christian Church of Torrance will give special recognition to the opening of school in the Sunday morning church service this Sunday, September 16, according to Rev. Cecil J. England, pastor. The guest speakers in the pulpit are to be Judge John A. Shidler, president of the Torrance Board of Education, and Dr. Rollin R. Smith, also a member of the Board of Education. Rev. England will introduce both speakers and preside at the service.

The speakers will present their subjects on "Parallel Goals of the Church and School" and "The Necessity for Close Cooperation Between Church and School." This special service is planned as a community recognition of the teachers and administrators of the Torrance school system.

All teachers and those associated with the school organization are cordially invited to be special guests in the service. Several of the teachers and principals also will participate in the service by reading the Scripture and saying the prayers. Special music will be presented by the church choir under the direction of Charles Bartholomew with Miss Janet Poh as organist.
