Here comes that long-legged bird again! This time the stork made his stop at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. John, Newton street. He brought the proud parents a five and one-half pound baby girl who is named Holly. She arrived Tuesday morning, September 4, at the Queen of Angels Hospital.

Another such bundle was left for Mr. and Mrs. Rennie Huntington, who are the parents of a new boy, Thomas Richard, born August 16 at the Torrance Memorial. He weighed in at eight pounds, and was anxiously awaited by his two older brothers, Johnny and Jimmy. Proud maternal grandparents of this newcomer are Mr. and Mrs. Al Lund, Hawthorne boulevard.

Still more work was on hand for that poor bird when he was scheduled to leave little seven pound Donald at the San Pedro Hospital. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Homer Brenner, Las Cadona. They welcomed him on Friday, September 7.

Gathering broom, mop and brushes, Mrs. Marie Cunningham and her friend, Mrs. Joyce Beers, went about cleaning the home into which Marie will move sometime this week. Former resident of Danah street, Mrs. Cunningham sold her property and went east for a visit. She is now returning to take up residence on Newton avenue. Captain Cunningham is now in Japan.

After a trip to San Francisco, Douglas Harline has returned to stay for a while at the home of his mother, Mrs. Lorine Harline, Las Codona avenue. Guest at the home of Mrs. Harline this last week was Miss Mary Lou Hutchison of Torrance. She was the guest of Mrs. Harline's daughter, Carolyn.

The newly established M.Y.F. here in Walteria entertained the San Pedro M.Y.F. recently. There were approximately 35 young people at the gathering, enjoying the delicious luncheon served by the courtesy of the Nathan Gordon's and Beasley's generosity. The Walteria M.Y.F. is under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cramer, Las Codona.

Little Kenny Cramer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cramer, Las Codona avenue, accompanied his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Bovard, on a visit to his great-grandmother's home in Denver, Colorado. He is expected to return on Thursday, September 13.

Plans have been made for a luncheon to be served the school staff by the Walteria PTA Board. The luncheon will be held on Monday, September 17, after the school children have gone home. This is an annual affair. PTA members will also be present Monday to help with registration and serve as guides for the parents and children.

We were very sorry to hear that Mrs. Bruce Howey, Winlock drive, has been sick abed for several days. Mrs. Howey is very active in the PTA and is serving as their vice-president this year. Hope she will soon be good as new.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mills, Danah street, entertained Mr.
