

CAR BUYERS . . . At six p.m. last Saturday night this was the crowd that gathered at Schultz and Peckham, local Ford distributor, as a company official determined who would be the purchaser of a 1937 Ford the firm had offered to sell for one dollar—a dollar dated 1921. During the three-day anniversary stunt 928 persons showed up with such a dollar and offered to buy the car. Although the person was not required to be present when the purchaser was named, a crowd of several hundred hopefuls showed up to witness the naming of the purchaser. The winner was Mrs. Nellie Weatherford of Lomita. (Herald photo).

HER DOLLAR HIT . . . Mrs. Nellie Weatherford of 25338 Walnut street, Lomita, picks up her keys to a '37 V-8 she bought from Schultz and Peckham for $1. At left is Charles Schultz Jr. and Bob Peckham, who thought up the stunt to call attention to the 30th anniversary of the firm. The dollar had to be a 1921 silver dollar—minted the year the local firm went into business. (Herald photo).

Boy Scout Encampment Planned for Area Boys

Plans for a mass encampment and competition between all Boy Scout troops in the harbor area, fashioned after the Los Angeles "Jamboree," with headquarters in Torrance, are being formulated by the Torrance Local Order of Moose and Troop 315, directed by Cecil Comer, for later this year. Joseph Platt, Moose Institutional representative revealed this week. Further details of the encampment, which will involve several hundred Scouts, their exhibits and competitive activities, will be announced at an early date.
