guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Witter of Alhambra over the weekend. Helen and Claude Ferrel back from a few days at Lake Tahoe, and thrilled about the five acres they bought while there.

A benefit card party is being planned by Las Vecinas on Thursday evening, October 18th, proceeds of which will go to the physically handicapped children at Harbor General Hospital. The affair will be held at St. James Parrish Hall, in Redondo Beach. There will be tables of Bridge, Canasta and other games. Let's all keep this date in mind and give our fullest support to this worthy cause.

Sincerest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sanok, of Calle de Aragon, on the birth of their little girl Barbara Mae born on September 5th, at Torrance Memorial. Baby weighed in at seven and one-half pounds. The Sanoks are planning to move into their new home on Calle Miramar, around Christmas time.

 Happy returns of the day are in order for Mary Margaret Wermuth, who was five years old on the 26th of September, and celebrated last Saturday afternoon with a group of friends including Sean Smith, Douglas Holt, Bonnie Baldwin, Peter Vandenberg, and Forrest Wermuth.

Mrs. Claude Ferrel, and Mrs. H. T. Raack were among the two hundred or more women guests of the Womens Division of Commerce who attended the Fifth Annual Fisherman's Fiesta on Friday. The day started at 10 o'clock with coffee at the San Pedro Woman's clubhouse, followed by a showing of movie slides, an hour and a half tour of the Harbor by boat, luncheon at the club house, and a tour of San Pedro and Rolling Hills. The day ended with tea served at the Portuguese Bend Club.

Doughnuts and coffee served

35 Refinery Men Rewarded For Service to Company

The Torrance refinery came in for a big share of the plaudits recently when 35 employees of General Petroleum's staff here received anniversary pins.

Leading the parade were M. H. Braun, engineering and B. H. Griggs, refining, who were awarded pins in recognition of 25 years of service.

Twenty-year pins were awarded to C. E. Bergren and Raymond I. Smith, both of the refinery.

Five men, received 10-year pins. They included E. L. Bartsch, refining; W. H. Fries, purchasing; Richard B. Weiss, engineering and John G. Wilson, refining.

The other twenty-six men honored received pins in recognition of five years of service. Receiving this honor were R. D. Calahan, refining; C. M. Chansler, refining; Richard Crockett, engineering; William B. Fraser, refining; Louis W. Gatti, refining; Thomas Gibson, purchasing; V. I. Golphene, refining; Randolph Green, refining; Harley O. Gulsinger, refining; Clyde M. Henderson, refining; F. W.

New Cub Scouts Signed, Still Room for More

Several new Cub Scouts were signed up at the meeting last Friday, but there is room for several more boys, according to Newell Wayt, cubmaster of the Torrance packs.

The packs met in the Baptist Church, where council directors showed motion pictures of the scouting activities in an effort to acquaint parents and the boys with some of the aspects of scouting.

Boys between the ages of 8 and 13 can join this young scouting organization, according to Wayt.

Torrance Rabbits Win Ribbons at County Fair

Additional awards announced this week at the Los Angeles County Fair brought special ribbons to two more Torrance entrants.

Bezanson's Rabbitry, 2233 W. 231st street, won honors for the entry of a New Zealand White, pre-junior buck.

Jay Elston, of 211 East Capson street, won honors for a New Zealand white senior doe and a New Zealand white special doe.
