TARTARS TO KICK OFF HOME GAMES TOMORROW

Top Halfback May Miss Oxnard Tilt

By REID BUNDY

The Tartars may enter their first home game of the 1951 season without the services of their No. 1 halfback, Coach Cliff Graybehl said yesterday. Suffering from a knee injury as a result of the Tartar-Glendale game last week is Charlie Camou, shifty ball packer on the 1951 squad.

The Tartars will open the home end of the new grid season here at 8 p.m. tomorrow, when they kick off against Oxnard High School. The last practice game before the Bay League games get under way.

TOUGH MATCH

The Oxnard team will be a tough match for the Tartars, although the local talent could get their first victory against them.

Oxnard won their first game against Notre Dame High School, but dropped last week's encounter to Burbank High. The squad is green this year, spies report, although the two games under their belt will help most of the players.

Last week's opening bid by the Tartar machine was anything but a brilliant start, as the offense bogged down time and again against an average Glendale line.

HAPPY WITH LINE

Graybehl seemed quite pleased with the showing made by the Tartar line, but he wasn't too impressed with the signal calling and drive of the backfield.

Camou injured his knee early in the struggle last week and saw only limited action during the game. He has missed most of the practice sessions this week.

Vern Wolfe, backfield coach of the squad, said he and Graybehl were moving Harry Bayless and Chic Cope into offensive spots on the squad for tomorrow night's game. Bayless is a speed merchant, capable of staying in front of the opposition if he ever breaks loose.

PASS SNAGGER FOUND

End Larry Roy is developing fast into one of the smoothest pass catchers seen in action here for some time. He is as fast as a gazelle, too, when he gets in front of the tacklers. Graybehl has been working him and Bill Crawford on pass plays "for some future game."

Jim Farrar, a very smooth passer but weak on the fundamentals, may see some action, Graybehl indicated. Farrar is one of the most accurate passers on the squad.

The 7-0 trimming by Glendale didn't daunt the coaches too much, they report.

"That's what practice games are for," Graybehl said. "We found where we were making lots of mistakes last Friday, and we'll try not to make them again."

The Tartars' open the league season at Inglewood a week from tomorrow.

Bee Coaches Send Charges Back Through Basic Training Course

By LEO MELTVEDT

Coaches Don Porter and Dick Leech were sending their Bee squad back through basic training in blocking and pass catching this week in an effort to bolster some of the weaknesses found in last week's game with the Glendale Hoover lightweights.

The two grid coaches, who have been trying to whip up a class A team with a huge green squad, will face the task again this afternoon at Compton, when they send the Bees against the Enterprise Bees.

One change in this week's lineup was announced. Buddy Powers was moved into the right halfback spot in the starting backfield.

Starting in the backfield will be Buddy Powers at right, Don Kasten at quarter, Burt Smith at full, and Don Atkins at the left half spot.

The coaches listed Katsuda as a starter today, although he might not see much action, they said. He suffered a sprained back last Thursday against the Glendale Bees, and has been taking it easy in drills.

The Bees lost their first encounter with Glendale last week, 28-0. Each team made only five first downs, but a little scab-back named Connors spelled the difference—he made three t.d.s. for the visitors. Another t.d., a safety, and two conversions accounted for the score.

"We're not too discouraged," Porter said. "After all, we have only five experienced men in suits, and the Glendale team had a week's practice on us."

The coaches hope to get the squad whipped up by October 11 when they open the Bay League season against Inglewood here.

TORRANCE HERALD Sports

Warriors to Open Conference Saturday

El Camino College lifts the curtain on the 1951 Metropolitan Conference football league Saturday night when they square off with the San Diego J.C. Knights. The evening's activities are scheduled to get underway at 8 p.m. on the Warrior's turf.

Coach Amby Schindler's eleven will go in quest of their first victory of the '51 campaign. The Blue and Grey has been defeated three times this year in practice tilts.

The El Camino Alumni lowered the boom on the Caminos by a 23 to 6 margin. Fullerton J. C. smashed out a 53 to 15 decision, and the University of Arizona freshmen tripped the Warriors 14 to 0.

The Caminomen will be at full strength for Saturday's contest with several of the previously injured men back on the roster. Bill Comer, out of action with a broken foot, practiced for the first time this week and probably will start against the Knights. Right Halfback Don Miller is in top form, and Right Tackle John Minick has recovered from a slight concussion.

Coaches Schindler and Doug Essick will probably start Esick will probably start Bill Comer and Bernie Flaherty at the end positions. Al Jiminez and Minick will cavort at the tackle slots, and Bud Cravens and Bob Dicken handle the guard spots. Vince Benstead holds down the center berth.

Tentative starting men in the backfield will be Miller at right half, Don Coby at left half, Ray Day in the fullback position, and either Ted Mitchell or George Clark III be at the quarterback post calling signals.

Warriors Drop Tilt to Arizona

Playing on adhesive tape and guts, the El Camino football contingent went down to defeat, 14 to 0, at the hands of the Arizona Frosh last Saturday night in Tucson.

The Warriors, battered and bruised, put up a game battle and could easily have won the game. Rough tactics on the part of the Frosh resulted in 170 yards against them, and if the locals could have capitalized on this it might have been a different story.

The playing turf was slippery, due to a slight rainfall just before kickoff. This, however, did not seem to hamper the two teams.

Inside the tenyard line thrice, the homebreds couldn't muster the scoring punch. The air trip took away the stamina, and the altitude (2500), the breath, but the Warriors fought tooth and nail down to the wire.

Lack of a running attack resulted in a total of minus 20 yards in rushing plays. Ted Mitchell and George Clark completed 15 of 35 passes attempted for 89 yards.

Turner Boots

With Dick Turner kicking a point after touchdown and a field goal, the College of Idaho Coyotes under Ex-Tartar Coach Eddie Cole won their second game of the season 10-0 when they hosted the Willamette University eleven last Friday night.

The coaches hope to get the squad whipped up by October 11 when they open the Bay League season against Inglewood here.

Ed Schmidt Listed With Pomona Sagehens Squad

Edward Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Beggerly, of 17420 Glenburn avenue, is a member of the Pomona-Claremont Sagehens football team, according to an announcement by Pomona College.

Schmidt, who played for Leuzinger High, was named to the All Bay League team two years ago.

TOP ACROBATIC TROUPE SIGNS FOR POLICE SHOW

One of the top acrobatic teams in the land—The Pina Troupe—has been signed to appear with the 14th Annual Police Show here in the High School Auditorium November 10.

Billed as "Teeterboard Experts," the troupe performs an amazing series of daring acrobatic feats, according to Capt. Willard Haslam, chairman of the show committee.

Sgt. Karl Friberg, publicity chairman for the show, says the Annual Police benefit will be staged at 7 p.m. and again at 9 p.m., as it was last year. Chief of Police John Stroh is overseeing the production and pushing the ticket sales.

Captain Haslam reports that a number of top acts have indicated that they will participate in the show. A 10-act bill is being prepared.

Proceeds from the annual show is turned over to the Torrance Police Officers' Association which uses the funds to support the activities of the TAP, the Torrance Auxiliary Police. The TAP is made up of young Torrance boys and girls.

UPS-A-DAISY... One of the famous Pina Troupe is getting ready to sit down the hard way. Flipped from the teeterboard, he will land comfortably in the chair held aloft by another member of the troupe. The acrobats have been signed to appear here in the 14th Annual Police Show, it was announced this week.
