CHURCHES TO NOTE FREEDOMS

Special thanksgiving services honoring God's goodness in preserving the freedom of worship enjoyed by the millions of Americans will be held in several of the city's churches Sunday as this community's observance of this greatest of all freedoms, it was announced this week by Rev. Paul Wenske, pastor of the First Lutheran Church and chairman of the Torrance City Council of Churches.

Cooperating in the observance will be the First Church of the Nazarene, the First Baptist Church of Torrance, the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, the St. Andrew's Episcopal church, the First Christian Church, and the First Lutheran Church.

TO BE INVADIED
"Within the next generation, our nation will be invaded," Rev. Wenske said in announcing the services. "Other persons, millions of them, are going to take over our government, our schools, our industries, our churches, and our homes," he said. "We will welcome the invasion—the invaders will be our children."

Rev. Wenske, speaking for the Council of Churches, pointed out that the church, with its Christian training, must be given an opportunity to have a part in the training of our youth.

"We do not want our youth to be the leaders of tomorrow without a thorough understanding of God and the Christian faith," Rev. Wenske said.

SERVICES TO VARY
Sunday's observances in the various churches will take several forms. Many of the churches are observing World Wide Communion Sunday in their regular services and will incorporate the tribute to the freedom of worship in these services.

An effort is being made in each church to get as many people into the church as can be accommodated.

"One of the great movements of our town is to get the entire family of every home to go to church on Sunday morning and to worship God," the pastor said.

He said there is nothing that can do more for the souls of men than to sing the great hymns of the church, to pray to our Great God, and to listen to God's messages from his servants, the Christian pastors.

The following services have been announced in connection with the special observance Sunday:

Nazarene
Rev. Freeman A. Brunson will speak on "Faith" at the 11 a.m. worship services, combining his message with the tribute to freedom of worship.

First Christian
Rev. Cecil J. England will preach on "The Freedom of Worship" at the 10:50 a.m. service combining his message with observance of World Wide Communion.

First Lutheran
Rev. Paul Wenske will speak on the topic, "Thank God We Have Freedom of Worship" in America," at both the 8:15 a.m. and the 10:45 a.m. services.

First Methodist
Rev. Clarence E. Miller will also combine a tribute to freedom of worship to World Wide Communion observance at the 10:50 a.m. services.

Central Church

Sermon on Faith Scheduled by Nazarene Pastor

A message entitled "Faith" will be brought to the First Church of the Nazarene congregation Sunday at the 11 a.m. services, it was announced this week by Rev. Freeman A. Brunson, pastor.

The message will bear on the Freedom of Worship observance in which several of the city's churches will participate Sunday, the pastor said.

The Sunday School department, under the supervision of Thurnian Scrogins, will meet at 9:45 a.m. and the Youth Group meetings will begin at 6:30 p.m., he said.

The evening evangelist services, entitled "A Post Pentecostal Tragedy," will begin at 7:30.

Reverend Brunson announced that Rev. Joe Calderon, evangelist and singer, would open the fall revival October 23.

Film Slated As Feature at Bible Crusade

A color film entitled "Bible Prophecy's Assuring Answer to What is Coming" will be shown at 7 p.m. at the Grand Theatre, 1522 Cravens avenue, this coming Sunday night. There is no admission charge.

The film will be a special feature in connection with the Prophetic Bible Crusade that is being conducted at the Grand Theatre each Sunday and Friday night.

"God's Cartoons of Four World Powers" will be the subject of the lecture that will follow the film, at 7:30. The talk will be the seventh of a series of illustrated lectures on Bible prophecy being presented by the Guild-Hardy Evangelistic Company.

The Sunday night lecture will be an exposition of the four world empires as revealed in the seventh chapter of the prophetic book of Daniel. Lifesize symbols will be used to illustrate the presentation.

The subject of the lecture for tomorrow night will be "Jesus Will Come Again." It will be illustrated throughout with screen pictures in natural color. All of the meetings are free to the public.

Quarterly Board Meet Set for Monday Night
The quarterly board and congregational meeting of the First Christian Church will be held in the church Monday evening, beginning at 6:30, with a pot-luck dinner and business session. Earl Eckert, chairman of the board, will preside over the meeting.

observance of World Wide Communion and a thanksgiving for the freedom of worship enjoyed by this nation at his morning service.

Reverend Miller announced that several new members would be admitted to the church as their way of pointing up the privileges of free worship in America.

Observance of World Wide Communion Slated Sunday

The First Methodist Church of Torrance at El Prado and Main avenues will observe World Wide Communion Sunday with the Holy Communion service at 10:50 a.m. Sunday, according to Rev. Clarence E. Miller, pastor.

"The Methodist Church believes in open communion, and all who love and serve the Lord Jesus Christ are invited to participate in the service regardless of denominational affiliation," Rev. Miller said.

The church will also join other churches in observing Freedom of Worship, the pastor said.

Rev. Miller reports that a record attendance was present last Sunday at the church, with a total of 292 present. Children and young people of the church school were formally promoted to higher grades.

M. R. Ransom was introduced as the general superintendent succeeding M. M. Schwab, who has been acting superintendent since June 1. Lester Foster was introduced as the new teacher of the high school-college age class.

Sunday evening at 6:30 there will be a special vesper service with the celebration of Holy Communion. Pastor A. C. Anderson of Trinity Lutheran Church in Hawthorne will be the guest speaker.

Lutherans to Celebrate Communion Sunday Nite

Next Sunday, October 7, there will be three worship services at First Lutheran Church, according to Pastor Paul Wenske. The sermon theme for both the 8:15 and the 10:45 morning services will be "Thank God We Have Freedom of Worship in America."

Sunday evening at 6:30 there will be a special vesper service with the celebration of Holy Communion. Pastor A. C. Anderson of Trinity Lutheran Church in Hawthorne will be the guest speaker.

Dr. Smith is not only a gifted speaker but an unusual soloist and is vice president of Sacred Recordings. In the earlier days he had to make a choice between an operatic career or the ministry, and he chose the latter.

Those who are attending are being thrilled nightly with the special music under the leadership of Robert S. Hoobay, noted song leader and baritone soloist. Only a few nights remain in this series.

Crusade Series Well Attended, Pastor Says

The Crusade for Christ revival series currently in progress at the First Baptist Church of El Nido is being very well attended according to Rev. Leland L. Pisel, local pastor.

Rev. J. Marion Smith, well known evangelist, is conducting the series of meetings which will continue nightly at 7:30 through October 7th.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will observe World Wide Communion Sunday with a special celebration of the Holy Communion at 11 a.m., it was announced by Rev. Arthur Bello, rector of the church.

Members of the past two confirmation classes, numbering 56 men, women and children, will attend this service and make their communion as a body.

The sermon will be on the meaning of the Eucharist for this modern world and is entitled "This Is My Body."
