Wife of Pioneer Merchant Passes

Mrs. Dora Lepkin, wife of one of Torrance's pioneer merchants, died in the Seaside Hospital in Long Beach on September 26, following an illness of several weeks.

She was the wife of J. Lepkin, who until recently maintained a merchant tailoring establishment at 1312 Sartori avenue. He established his business in 1923.

The couple first met in Russia, where they were born, and were later married in Winnipeg, Canada, in 1908.

A son, Bennie, operates a retail drug store in Long Beach.

NTCIA Hears Reports: Install New Officers

Year-end reports on various projects of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association were made by outgoing committee chairmen at the installation of officers held October 3 at McMaster Park.

Following his charge to the new officers Burt Johnson, outgoing president, was presented with an automatic lawn sprinkler by Mrs. Anne Collins, on behalf of the association.

Jack White, the new president, stated that the association was renewing and rededicating its efforts to push the state to improve 174th street.

had been completed with Don Brewer of the Allied Fur Industries who will describe the activities of one of Torrance's lesser known but interesting industries. To speak also is Jack O. Baldwin, managing editor of the Torrance Herald, who will describe the new system of reporting to parents to be used in Torrance schools this year. The speaker was one of the group of parents and teachers who last year formulated the new plan of reporting.

Among the new officers installed at the meeting were: Dave Dyer, vice president; Mrs. Anne Collins, secretary; Mrs. Janice Bates, treasurer and Larry Gatti, auditor.

The outgoing officers include: Johnson, president; Ken Beight, vice president; Mrs. Anne Collins, secretary; Mrs. Wayne Alford, auditor.

Appointed committee chairman by President White were: Bob Rohebert, ways and means; Mrs. Alice McGuinness, membership; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Runsted, co-chairmen of publicity; Dave Dyer, program chairman and Ruth Brooks, educational.

HAVE YOU WONDERED...

WHY WAS JESUS BAPTISED?

Why should the Lord of Glory need this symbol of cleansing?

And why did He wait for it until he was thirty years of age?

See how the Bible foretold 568 years beforehand the exact year, day and hour of the crucifixion of Christ.
