

Torrance Viewpoint Topic For PTA Unit's First Meet

MAGDALENE M. HINDS

The Torrance Point of View" was the subject of a talk delivered by Dr. J. H. Hull before a large gathering last Thursday evening in the Fern Avenue Cafeteria. The occasion was the October meeting of the Fern Avenue-Greenwood School PTA. Dr. Hull said that language arts would be stressed in the Torrance schools this year. It is the aim of the schools to treat each child as an individual; to help him to grow emotionally, mentally, socially and physically. The schools will strive for home, school and church teamwork in achieving this.

He stated that four years ago, when Torrance formed its own school district, the enrollment figure was 1900. "Today," he said, "it has reached 5555." Dr. Hull added that it was the greatest increase in any district in the state and that the community is still growing with a need for more schools.

The meeting was opened by a salute to the flag led by Cub Scouts from Den 3 of Pack 728. The Rev. Paul Wensko of the First Lutheran Church gave the inspirational message.

During the business session, presided over by Mrs. G. G. Grubb, PTA president, a change was made in the by-laws making the official name of the organization the Fern Avenue-Greenwood School PTA. It will be known as such until the Greenwood School decides to form a unit of its own. At this time Mrs. Grubb was presented a president's pin and a corsage by Mrs. G. J. Derouin, past president.

Mr. C. I. Creelius, Fern Avenue principal and Mr. R. F. Ellerman, principal of Greenwood School, introduced their respective faculties.

Mr. P. E. Humphreys, Cubmaster of Pack 728, which is sponsored by the PTA, invited the members to attend the October Pack meeting. It will be held in the Fern Avenue Cafeteria on October 26 at 7:30 p.m. The organization will be presented with its new charter at that time. All boys between the ages of eight and eleven who wish to become Cub Scouts may join the Pack that evening. They must be accompanied by their parents.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by members of the executive board.

TRIOS PARTICIPATE IN COLORFUL PRESENTATION

Courtesy Night was observed by Trio Rebekah Lodge Wednesday evening when the noble grand, Mrs. Lella Sellens, introduced guests from the following lodges:

Angeleno Mesa, Paloma and Eureka, Los Angeles; Silver Crest, Redondo Beach; Ocean Queen, San Pedro, Compton; Welcome Lodge, Inglewood; Del Mar and Wide-Awake, Long Beach.

During the evening representatives of Welcome Lodge, Inglewood, made an impressive presentation of the dolls, Mrs. IOOF and Miss Rebekah. The Inglewood guests then presented a clever skit, which was enthusiastically received. Presentation of the dolls is a project of the state assembly president's, and will defray cost of a pageant planned for convention in Long Beach next May.

Refreshments were served in the dining room, lovely with autumn leaves and seasonal decorations. Mrs. Margie Russell served as chairman of arrangements.

Trio, having received the dolls from the Inglewood Rebekah Lodge on October 10, in turn presented them to the Silver Gate Rebekah Lodge of Santa Monica the following evening.

The skit, "Miss America of 1851 and Her Sisters from Across the Seas," was portrayed in costume as follows:

Mrs. Anna May Isbel as Miss Switzerland, did a yodeling number; Mrs. Mary Smith as Katerinka of Holland, entertained with a Dutch dance; Mrs. Ona Pence as Olga from Sweden gave an address of welcome in her native tongue; Mrs. Jean Carlow, as Gretchen from Germany, sang a lullaby to her "baby"; Mrs. Katherine Vash, as a Spanish senorita, gave an address of welcome in her native language; Mrs. Ruth Jacobs, of Hawaii, did a native dance; Mrs. Winifred Brase portrayed Anne Boleyn of London and carried her head under her arm as she sang of the "Laments of Anne Boleyn"; Mrs. Lella Sellens as Miss America of 1851.

PTA Group Evaluates Television

Beginning their second television evaluation program under First District CCPT and Torrancia PTA Council, the Perry School PTA selected "20 Questions." Mrs. Glen Runstead, radio and television chairman, announced. Meses, Victor Winter, I. E. Winther, George Simonson, R. B. McClain, and Bill Wright would serve on the committee.

PTA Features Fashion Show At First Meet

Mrs. Claude Hill, new president of the 186th Street PTA, conducted the first general meeting of the year, held last Thursday afternoon. The 1951-52 budget was presented and adopted and Mrs. Bill Davis was ratified as the new magazine chairman.

Parents were welcomed and the new faculty was introduced by the principal, Mrs. Mary Hawks.

A Community Chest film was shown and a featured attraction was the Fashion Show presented

To Observe 30th Year

Soroptimist history will take quiz form when the thirtieth (Pearl) anniversary of the organization is observed by Harbor District Soroptimist Club members in dinner session October 31 at the Gardena home of Mrs. Edna St. Clair Walther, 16803 S. Halldale avenue.

The announcement was made at last week's luncheon meeting in the San Pedro YWCA where program chairman Mrs. Edna Whitlow conducted a preliminary quiz and president Mrs. Hazel Scott Coomes directed official discussions.

Mmes. Cecely Lusby and Walther were named co-chairmen of ways and means to expedite the current Bello plan and a rummage sale. The group will also operate a booth in the Vandalia gardens when a Benefit County Fair is held October 27 under the auspices of the San Pedro Community Hospital Women's Auxiliary.

Story book dolls, portraying a miniature fashion show, were used as table decorations when refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Bethel Mothers

Mrs. Edna Babcock, guardian of Bethel 50, International Order of Job's Daughters, recently opened her home at 723 Columbia Court for a meeting of Job's Daughters Mothers Club.

Mrs. Robert Lenton, president, led the group in a discussion of interesting plans of forthcoming club activities.
