Walteria News Notes

By BETTY MITCHELL
Phone Lomita 2635-W

The big entertainment event coming up here in Walteria in the near future is the PTA Halloween dance planned for Saturday, October 27. The dance is scheduled to begin at 8:30 and run until midnight. The price will be 50 cents per person, proceeds to be used for the health and child welfare work carried on by the PTA. Everyone is invited to attend, and this reporter thinks it sounds like a lot of fun. By the way, masquerade is optional.

The Walteria Baptist Church Sunday School held a picnic in the recreation park on Saturday, October 13, in celebration of their Sunday School attendance which reached one hundred for the first time on Sunday, October 7. A basket lunch and an afternoon of fun was enjoyed by all attending.

Little Gordon and Donald Noble celebrated their birthdays with a party at the Walteria Park on Thursday, October 11. Gordon was nine, and Donald, four. The guests who came to help celebrate were Ronald Gray, Tommy Simpkins, Marilyn Alding, Pamela and Carolyn Cummings, Bobbie Butcher, Joan Arneaus, Mrs. Howsley and daughters Peggy, Linda, and Bonney Jean, Mrs. Chris Moore, Lance and Sandra Moore, Mrs. Hasper, Steve and Judy Huser, Mrs. Helen Lillie and daughters Sandra and Shirley and grand-daughter Linda, and Marian Daniels. Each child was presented with a book, and enjoyed the refreshments of cake, ice cream, cola and bubble gum. Gordon's birthday was October 1 and Donald's was October 4.

A joint Sunrise service will be held Sunday, October 21, sponsored by the Walteria MYF. Participating will be groups from North Redondo Beach, Wayside Chapel, Dominguez, Wilmington, San Pedro, Torrance, and of course, Walteria. The groups will meet at the Recreation Hall and then go to the beach for services. After the service they will return to the hall for cocoa and rolls. The speaker will be Sylvia Griggs who was with the Methodist youth group, sponsored by Dr. Frank Williams, Hollister Methodist Church, Pasadena, which went to Germany this last summer. Miss Griggs will tell of her many interesting experiences with the youth in that country.

Week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Lucine Harline, Las Codona avenue, were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rhan of Bell.

Mrs. Mary Anthony, Las Codona avenue, is visiting a friend, Mrs. A. J. Twoby, in Boulder City, Nevada.

The Eidelis Club met at the home of Mrs. Paul Lassen, Ward street, Wednesday, October 10. The group gave a hand-kewchief shower honoring Mrs. Laura Sage. Those members present were Mrs. Hahn, Effie Palmer, Lawrence, Edith Crowe, Lillian Getchel, Hamilton of Lomita, Laura Sage, and hostess Mrs. Luella Lassen. Guest for the afternoon was Mrs. Eva Kelley of Park street. A potluck luncheon was served and the rest of the time was spent playing Bunco.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Chuck) Combs, Washington, D.C., announce the arrival of a daughter, October 10. Chuck has been stationed in Washington, D.C. for the past year where he is serving with the U.S. Air Force. He lived in Walteria part of the time prior to his joining the air force. Paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Combs, Neece avenue, are bearing up well under the strain of becoming grandparents for the second time. Their other grandchild is Sandra, age 2, daughter of Odessa Ramage.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stonecker, Neece avenue, left Friday for
