

El Camino Instructor To Address Forum Club

The Fellowship Forum Club of the First Christian Church will meet in the YWCA building at 7:30 Sunday evening. It was announced this week by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rood, co-presidents of the club.

Dr. John Forrest of El Camino College will speak on the topic "Is the Golden Rule Obsolete?"

Dr. Forrest has given this lecture many times to service clubs, church and college groups, according to the Roods. A discussion period will follow the lecture.

Torrance Welcomes....

A search for a warmer climate brought Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gonta, formerly of San Pedro, to Torrance Gardens recently, where they have settled down at 917 Felbar avenue.

Moving in also were the Gonta's three boys, Michael 12, Stewart 10, and Stanley 9. Michael is a Boy Scout, while Stewart and Stanley are Cubs. Mrs. Gonta was a Den Mother of a Cub pack in San Pedro last year.

A veteran of service with an anti-aircraft unit in the Army, Mr. Gonta has been employed at the Naval Drydock on Terminal Island for the past eight years. He is a member of the Redmen.

Moving into Torrance from Lomita recently were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moore, who now live at 1934 Middlebrook road. The Moores brought their young daughter, Cheryl Ann, with them. Cheryl was born five days before they moved.

An employee of the Williams Diamond Steamship Agency, Mr. Moore is an Air Force veteran. Friends can phone them at Lomita 2617-R.

Returning to her home here after spending the summer in Redondo Beach is Mrs. Carrie Bell Elbert. Mrs. Elbert lives at 2307 Maricopa place.

Moving from 1636 Greenwood avenue from their former residence at 22506 Ocean avenue are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bethurum, and daughters, Charlene Adelle 7, and Yvonne Marie, 13 months.

A fireman with the Los Angeles County Fire Department, Bethurum made the move to be closer to his station, located on 147th street, he said. He is an Army veteran.

The Bethurums are members of the Fern Avenue School, PTA.

At home at 827 Fonthill avenue here are Mr. and Mrs. Neal Q. Vocke, former residents of Manhattan Beach. Settling down with their folks at the new home are Linda 6½, who has entered Fern Avenue School, and Larry 2½.

A veteran of Army infantry service, Mr. Vocke is a member of the Valley Forge Masonic Lodge No. 587, in Los Angeles. Mrs. Vocke is a member of the Betsy Ross Order of the Eastern Star No. 518, in Los Angeles.

If you hear strains of a hoe-down coming from 3141 Opal, you will know that Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Pittenger are home.

Newcomers to Torrance, the Pittengers moved here recently from Los Angeles. They are former members of the Bob Osgood and his 49ers television show, which features square dancing.

Mr. Pittenger is now employed at Northrop Aircraft. The couple has one son, Robert Ian, who is 16 months old. Mr. Pittenger is a member of the Chi Phi Fraternity at University of Southern California.

Dressmaking Classes Open Here This Week

A free adult class in dressmaking and tailoring will be held each Monday morning from 9 to 12, starting last Monday at the Recreation Hall, 242nd and Ocean, Waverly. This building is off Highway 101 in Torrance and is one block west of Hawthorne boulevard.

Instructor of the class, Florence Laycock, will take up the use of the sewing machine, following patterns, beginning and advanced sewing procedure, and tailoring. Women are asked to bring materials, to get advice and help for old clothes that need remodeling. Both beginning and advanced students are welcome to join.

REV. JOE CALDERON . . . Opens Revival

Evangelist Appearing At Revival

First meeting of a two week revival featuring Evangelist Joe Calderon, was held in the Church of the Nazarene at 1501 West Carson street last Tuesday evening, according to Rev. Freeman A. Brunson, pastor.

Rev. and Mrs. Calderon are singing at every service, and he is preaching, Rev. Brunson reported.

"Rev. Calderon is a great preacher of the Word," Rev. Brunson said. "The welcome mat is out for all to come to our church in the heart of the Shoe String Strip and hear this evangelist."

Pastor Attending Church Meeting

Attending the Regional Area Assembly of the Disciples of Christ at Fresno today and tomorrow is Rev. C. J. England, pastor of the First Christian Church here. Reverend England said national leaders of the Christian Church will be the principal speakers at the meeting.

At the same time a delegation of women from the church is attending the Regional Conference of the United Council of Church Women being held at the Wilshire Methodist Church. The meeting, which is being attended by Protestant Church women from Southern California, Arizona and Nevada, opened yesterday and will continue through today.

Soldier Wins Combat Badge

Pvt. Stephen Wong, of 18970 South Arlington avenue, has been awarded the Combat Infantryman badge, according to a dispatch mailed from Korea earlier this month.

Wong, a member of the First Division's 7th Cavalry Regiment, was awarded the badge as a symbol of close-quarter fighting with the enemy, the announcement said.

Mormons Raise $4000 for Church Fund at Dinner Served to 360

More than $4000 was raised by members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints with the staging of a banquet in the Civic Auditorium Monday night for 360 guests.

Purpose of the affair was to raise money to be applied to the building fund of the new church for the Torrance Ward, which is now under construction at 220th street and Cabrillo avenue.

The banquet was the result of an idea proposed and pushed to a successful conclusion by Mrs. Georgia Newland. She was assisted by Mesdames Kathryn Squire, Vivian Jacobs, and Nellie Pinney.

Among the many local citizens, residents and businessmen who attended the affair were three high dignitaries of the Mormon Church. Honored were Austin L. Gudmundsen, president of the Inglewood Stake; E. Garret Barlow, president of the Santa Monica Stake, and L. Lloyd Prestwich, counselor to President Gudmundsen.

The guests were introduced by Edwin M. Wheat, Bishop of the Torrance Ward. Emceed the entertainment was Wendell Noble, television and radio star, who is also a member of the church. He sang several numbers and was accompanied by Bernice Jamison.

Heard also was Contralto Elna Bybee, a member of the local Ward, who sang for the banqueters.

Other entertainment consisted of a musical offering by Lilas Stefan, concert pianist, and a duet by Pat Cowdell and Dardra Ball.

THE KING'S HERALDS . . . To Be Heard Sunday

King's Heralds Quartet To Sing At Bible Crusade

"The King's Heralds," quartet of the "Voice of Prophecy" radio broadcast and the "Faith for Today" telecast, will be heard in a free musical concert this coming Sunday evening at 7:30. The concert will be given in connection with the "Prophetic Bible Crusade" currently being conducted at the Grand Theatre, 1522 Cravens avenue.

The quartet is seen and heard each Sunday by millions over the "Faith for Today" telecast at 12:30 on channel 7. And over the "Voice of Prophecy" program which is broadcast each Sunday over Mutual network at 9:30 a.m., ABC at 2 p.m., as well as on many foreign stations throughout the world.

The 30-minute program will be followed by a Bible lecture at 8 o'clock by Evangelist D. R. Guild. The lecture will deal with the subject of the "United States in Bible Prophecy." Evangelist Guild said, "The amazing rise and progress of the United States as well as the future of our country was all foretold in a Bible prophecy nearly 1900 years ago." The lecture will be illustrated with multi-colored charts.

At 7 o'clock a film will be screened entitled "Will Christ Come in Our Day?" The entire program will be without charge and open to the public.

The lecture for tomorrow evening will be "Why Are There So Many Denominations?"
