Alumni Dance, Homecoming Set For El Camino

Alumni Day celebrations which will feature visits to classrooms and workshops on the El Camino campus will be climaxed

1625 Cabrillo — Torrance

Friday night, November 2, with an Alumni Day dance at the Westport Country Club in Playa Del Rey, it was announced this week.

The Alumni Day observation will be a prelude to the college's annual Homecoming program the next day, when the El Camino Warriors will host the Long Beach City College Vikings in a football game at the El Camino stadium.

The TV talent show, which will be presented over KHJ-TV next Tuesday evening will be repeated on campus for the returning alumni.

"Feature of the day," according to Rex Van Trees, spokesman for the college, "will be the baby sitting facilities available to the returning grads."

TARTARS CHALLENGE UNBEATEN VIKINGS

Tartars in Final Drive for Honors

The Terrible Tartars will step up in class Saturday night and pick on a foe which shouldn't be in the same league—the powerful Santa Monica Vikings, perennial Bay League champs.

Breaking away from the usual Friday night routine for this one game, the Tartars will visit the Vikings on the Santa Monica turf beginning at 8 o'clock Saturday.

With their decisive victory over Inglewood last Friday night, Santa Monica has been crowned by most to have the Bay League championship for 1951 sewed up tighter than a Russian election, but the Tartars still claim they might have a bit to say before the evening is over—we certainly hope so.

"One thing is certain," Coach Cliff Graybehl told members of the Torrance Optimist Club Monday evening. "Saturday night's game won't be a defensive game—it'll be a wide-open race to see who can get the most touchdowns."

Graybehl gave the scoring race as the Tartars only chance to beat the Vikings. "Just make a lot more touchdowns than they do," he said.

ENDS SPARKLE

The Vikings boast of two of the league's finest ends in R. C. Owens and A. D. Williams. Owens is an all-league basketball player and both he and Williams can catch passes like Di Maggio catches fungus. Long-armed and fast, both boys are a scoring threat every time Quarterback Sandy Lederman gets the ball.

Graybehl plans to use Harry Bayless, Charlie Camou, Bill Crawford, Beryl Jones and Ted Marcoux in the offensive backfield (four at a time).

LINE THE SAME

His line will probably remain the same, with Cal Browning and Jack O'Chain holding down end, Chuel Bingham and G. G. Johnson the tackles, Bill Gray and Harvey Rushfeldt the guards and Johnny Spiller the center. All have been playing terrific ball throughout the season.

Larry Roy has been seeing action at end quite a bit and has proved to be a good pass catcher.

Backing up the line will be Dick Amend and Chiel Cope, a pair of consistent tacklers who seldom miss their assignments.

THE RALLY... Parading of hundreds of Torrance High School students through the business section of Torrance was given an assist this week in the victory of the Varsity over Leuzinger in the fog-bound pigskin battle later in the evening. Torrance won 13-7.

Frustrated Fans Watch in Vain As Tartars Dunk Foes in the Fog

Frustrated fans who had laid down their 80 cents to see the Torrance-Leuzinger game last Friday night came away from the stadium after the 13-7 victory by the Tartars wondering if the trip had been worth it.

While players were running up and down the gridiron with a wet, soggy pigskin, rooters sat breathless, trying to hear which way the play had gone—the fog which had settled down over the field shut out anything more than a glimpse now and then of the action.

Somewhere out in the fog, however, Torrance's latest find in halfbacks, Harry Bayless, found running room toward the end of the game, when the Tartars trailed 6-7, and scampered at least 50 yards for a touchdown very few rooters saw. He also dove into the end zone a few minutes later on a conversion to give the Tartars their 13-7 margin of victory.

Asked in the locker room later about his last touchdown pass, Bayless said: "I don't know where they came from, but Bill Crawford and Beryl Jones threw beautiful blocks on the only guys in front of me when I came around the end."

Coach Cliff Graybehl, who hadn't been able to see the play either, took his word for it and congratulated the two backs. "Everybody played a terrific game," Graybehl said. He and backfield coach Vern Wolfe had nothing but praise for the line play which held the Leuzinger offense to a standstill.

One of the happiest gridders in the dressing room was guard Bill Gray, whose new shuttle-proof plastic arm protector had stood the test and brought him through the game with no further injuries to his amputated left arm. He was hurt in the two previous games.

"Boy, this thing is really a secret weapon," Gray beamed.

Flag Football Leagues Open Fire This Week

Play in the Torrance Recreation—YMCA sponsored Flag Football Leagues for Torrance boys got under way here Tuesday evening when the Green Streaks met the Junior Hi-Ys in the first game of the Central Torrance Junior League.

The Central Torrance Midget League kicked off yesterday evening, as did the Walteria Junior League.

Play in the city has been divided into three areas, according to Elmer Moon, the city's director of athletics. Leagues have been formed in Central Torrance, North Torrance, and Walteria. All games will be played, beginning at 4 p.m., he said.

Games of the Central Torrance leagues will be played at the Torrance Park, where the baseball outfield has been divided into two fields; play in North Torrance will be at McManis Park, and play in Walteria will be at the Walteria Park.

Players will wear red flags on their hips, and a tackle will be made when an opponent grabs the flag, Moon said.

Schedules for the Central Torrance Juniors next week will see the Green Streaks meeting the Kiwanis on Monday, the Junior Hi-Y vs. Pueblo on Tuesday.

In the Midget League, the Green I will meet Torrance Elms Monday, Pueblo vs. Halldale Tuesday, and Gra-Y-Lions vs. Green II on Wednesday.

At Walteria, the Hollywood Riviera team will face Seaside on Monday, and Seaside vs. Walteria on Wednesday in the Junior League. The Apaches and Wolverines from the Midget League will take over on Tuesday.
