Fog Blamed For Collision

The heavy fog which shrouded the city early last Friday morning was blamed for a collision of two autos at Western avenue and Carson street in which a Los Angeles woman was injured.

Theated at Harbor General Hospital following the crash was Mrs. Iola Bullard, 54, of Los Angeles. Driver of the car in which she was riding was listed by Torrance police as Knuts Holstrom, 46, also of Los Angeles. Joseph Palumbo, 59, of 2211 Halldale avenue, was listed as the driver of the other car. Neither driver was injured.

Greater Torrance Market Plans Fifth Anniversary Celebration

Plans for having everything but a three-headed lizard on hand to help him celebrate his fifth anniversary at the corner of Torrance boulevard and Arlington avenue were announced this week by Hank Borg, owner of the Greater Torrance Market.

Running down the list of appearances scheduled for Saturday morning between 10 and noon, Hank told of Frank Hernan, the internationally-known ventriloquist and magician who would be on hand with the world's only "Talking Tuna"; Walter Wabbit, the mind-reading rabbit and "Julius," the dummy.

TORTURE BOARD

Hernan has also promised Hank—who usually confines his activities around the store to selling groceries—that he will let himself be chained and locked to the Siamese torture board by members of the audience and will attempt to escape in record time.

The torture board will be on display at the Greater Torrance Market throughout the week. Saturday afternoon The Old Timer, reputed to be the oldest Rough Rider in California, will be on hand with his trick burro from 1 until 5 to kick off the White King Soap Company's $90,000 Washing Machine contest.

PRICES SHOT

For his own part, Hank is kicking the lid off a lot of prices to celebrate the anniversary.

THE OLD TIMER...Reputed to be California's oldest Rough Rider, the Old Timer will be at the Greater Torrance Market with his trick burro Saturday afternoon from 1 until 5 to kick off the White King Soap Company's $90,000 contest. He may even let the kiddies ride the burro, he hinted this week.

Refinery Clerk At GP Promoted

James G. Nelson of Inglewood has been promoted to refining accountant of the General Petroleum Corporation, according to an announcement by James H. Curtis, manager of manufacturing.

In his new post Nelson will continue to make his headquarters in the company's Torrance refinery, Curtis said.

Nelson, a native of Brooklyn, has a record of 17 years continuous service with the General Petroleum Corporation. He first came with the company in 1934, as an oil cost clerk.

Nelson's most recent position has been as a special clerk at the Torrance refinery.

FEW CITIZENS

In Monaco, only about one-sixth of the people are citizens.

DESERT AREA

Ten per cent of the area of Spain is semidesert.

Troop Leaders to Meet

Vern Gill, plant superintendent of American Radiator and Standard Sanitation Corporation here, has called a meeting of the officers of Scout Troop 219 to be held at the Club Alondra tomorrow evening.
