St. John found Christ, Truth, in the Word which is God. We look for the sainted Revelator in his writings, and there we find him.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Progressive Dinner Gala Occasion for Junior Club

The Crenshaw boulevard home of Mrs. Earl E. Clayton was the starting point for the Torrance Junior Woman's Club progressive dinner last Wednesday evening. Serving the cocktail course at Mrs. Clayton's home was Mrs. Joel R. Kink.

Members then proceeded to the home of Mrs. E. E. Wilson, where a delectable salad course was served.

Laying the home of Mrs. Wilson, club members advanced to the clubhouse where the choice and dessert courses were served.

Table decorations by Mrs. Burton Easley were in Hal loween theme with large paper pumpkins complemented by orange candles, forming the centerpiece.

Mrs. W. C. Boswell, first vice president, introduced the evening program's guest, Mr. Lloyd Bridges, vocalist.

Carnival Attractions Set Today

Plans for the annual carnival sponsored by the 186th Street PTA to be held at the school this afternoon and evening beginning at 4:30, were outlined by the president, Mrs. Claude Hill.

Mrs. W. D. Earley, chairman of the food committee, will be assisted by volunteer PTA members and teachers. Mrs. Harold Sprinkle and Mrs. Bill Davis are in charge of the handwork. Mrs. B. H. Cothran and Mrs. Oliver Lang have the package booth chairmanship. Mrs. Raymond Abernathy will be in charge of the white elephant booth.

John Strong and his new shows will be a featured attraction. Everyone is invited to come and bring the family for dinner and entertainment. There will be hot dogs, fresh corn on the cob, pie, cake, ice cream, coffee and cold drinks.

Represent Waleria

Ten members of Waleria PTA attended the first open Torrance Council PTA meeting held last Wednesday at the First Christian Church in Torrance.

Needs, obstacles, plans and present program in the dental health program for the Torrance Unified School District, Torrance Council PTA, and local units were outlined and discussed by members of the Council board, representatives of First District PTA and Dr. Arthur Berke, child dental specialist. Dr. Berke emphasized the point that the program must not only include plans to provide a dental clinic but also plans to continue education in maintaining dental health at all times.

Those attending from Waleria were: Mesdames Glen Hardeste, president; Bruce Howey, vice president; C. Cramer, secretary; C. W. Johnson, financial secretary; Evar Jansson, historian; S. Chmara, music chairman; J. Cooper, magazine and emblem chairman; H. C. Wrigley, Loren Skinner and Mr. D. Boone Kirke, principal.
