Tartar Teen Talk

By BETSY SHAW

The senior students seem to be in a constant daze, always muttering to themselves as they wander through the halls of Torrance High School. Why? Tryouts for the Senior Class play have just been held and their results announced.

Under the direction of Mr. Desmond Wedberg, faculty director; Nancy Ruth Miller, student director and Edgar Forester, student producer; the senior class will present "Men Are Like Streetcars" by Graeme and Sarah Lorimer, on December 6 and 7.

Jeanette Lopez, Dannie Kell, Beryl Jones, Bill Crawford, Gene Paslov, Neal Schwab, Richard Uglund, Donna Latture, Jo Ann Benard, Sandy Pestov, Marian McDonald, Carol Jacobs, Dayle Denham, Anita Louise Bourcault, Ann Stephens and Diana Weber Davis are the tentative cast of the play.

The plot of the play is a big secret, being kept by the senior class, and will not be known until its performance in December.

Five members of the Student Council journeyed to Leuzinger High School last Thursday to represent Torrance at a Bay League forum. Four students from each of the other Bay League schools were present. Ideas were exchanged on how to improve school clubs, school spirit and present better assemblies.

The first discussion was on school clubs and it was asked how schools could restrict students from belonging to many organizations. Leuzinger lists all its clubs in two groups and a student is allowed to belong to only two clubs, one in Group A and the other in Group B. This prevents one student from belonging to a great number of clubs and contributing poorly to all of them.

The best means of raising school spirit, it was agreed by all schools present, is to hold pep rallies before all athletic events. Exchange pep rallies have always proved successful and this year Redondo and Torrance are trying them out. Santa Monica has a Boosters Club composed of all interested citizens.

Scouters To Meet at Naval Base

"How to Comish" will be studied by Scout commissioners of Torrance who attend the 1951 Commissioners Conference of the Los Angeles Area Boy Scout Council next weekend, November 3 and 4, at the U. S. Naval Base on Terminal Island, according to A. Herbold, district commissioner for the Harbor area.

Under the direction of Robert Cheney, chairman of commissioners, staff and Ray Barbee, council training chairman, demonstrations and discussions will be conducted on registration procedures, Scoutmaster coaching plans and other duties of these "contact men," Herbold said.

Bob Perin, assistant national director of Scouting services, will be present to assist the training staff.

The conference will open Saturday and close Sunday at 2 p.m. Scouters will be housed and fed by the Navy.

Guest Speaker Slated For Foursquare Church

Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock the Torrance Foursquare Church, located at 1207 El Prado, will have as its guest speaker Rev. Orlando Shields.

Rev. Shields has for many years taught in the Foursquare Bible College. He is one of the best-known teachers of the college. Many students have graduated from this college who were sent there by the local Foursquare Church. At the present time there are two students attending from the local church, Melva Slesmore and Robert Pedersen.

The Sunday morning service at 10:45 will be conducted by the pastors.

zens, to boost athletic events at the high school. They have proved a big factor in raising school spirit at Sanohi. A car caravan with a police escort has developed interest in all out-of-town games at Redondo, and Leuzinger holds a snake dance through town and a bonfire at their city park before all of their important gridiron clashes.

Better assemblies was the last item taken up at the forum. It was agreed that talent, rather than educational assemblies, are the most successful. Many of the schools have exchange aud casts and in Santa Monica some of the most enjoyable assemblies have been presented by returning alumni such as Glenn Ford.

After the meeting Jack O' Cain, Alicia Loranger, Jo Ann Benard, Harvey Rushfield and Betsy Shaw enjoyed refreshments with the students representing the other Bay League schools.

Tomorrow night Torrance High School students will be touring to one of the southernmost parts of the United States. The Tartar Touchdown Team tackles La Jolla way down near San Diego. The football team is looking forward to the big team dinner preceding the game. After eating all that delicious food they'll be out for a victory. Take it from us, La Jolla had better watch out!

Membership Sunday Set For Walteria

Sunday will be "Membership Day" at the newly-organized Walteria Community Methodist Church which has its temporary meeting place in the clubhouse at the City Park in Walteria.

This will be the first time opportunity has been given for new members to join since the organizational meeting on September 23, at which time 54 charter members were received. The charter of the new church is being held open and those who join between now and Christmas will be charter members.

MALE CHORUS . . . The Valley of Paradise Euphonic Male Chorus will be heard in a concert at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in the Grand Theatre, 1522 Cravens avenue. The 30-voice male chorus directed by Ester Nixon will present a 40-minute program of sacred music.

According to Rev. Clarence E. Miller, administrative pastor, membership by transfer is open to people of all denominations or upon profession of Christian faith. The Rev. Mrs. Clarence E. Miller will be in charge of the service on Sunday and will continue in a series of illustrated sermons of the "Building of Christian Character" based on the beatitudes of the gospel of Matthew.

Sunday-school with classes for all ages meets at 9:45 a.m. and the church worship service begins at 10:30 a.m.
