Methodist Young Adults Attend Meet

Men of the Young Adult Class of First Methodist Church met recently to paint classrooms in the Junior Sunday School Department. At the dinner hour their wives and families joined them at the church and a delightful pot luck dinner was served.

A short meeting followed, conducted by the president, M. R. Ransom, and plans were made to meet again at the church on November 30 for a social evening. Hosts for the meeting will be Messrs. and Mrs. J. Broatch and Robert Reid.

Presentation of 25-Year Pins to Mark RNA Meet

The fall activities of Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, will reach their peak next Tuesday evening at a closed meeting when the oracles, Mrs. Vertie Grimm, on behalf of the Camp, will present 25-year pins to eligible members.

One member, Mrs. Cora Sedelmaier, will be especially honored when she is presented with a pin sent by the supreme oracle signifying the completion of 50 years of membership in the society.

Guest officers for the evening will be oracles and past oracles from neighboring cities, namely, San Pedro, Redondo Beach, Inglewood, Culver City and Ocean Park.

The district deputy of the society, Mrs. Mamie L. Kiehn of Culver City, will also be present to assist the Torrance camp in honoring these members.

Oracle Grimm and her committee have put forth considerable effort to make this a pleasant evening and one that will be long remembered by those in attendance.

The card party scheduled for the third Tuesday evening of November has been canceled.

Royal Neighbor Camp meetings are held at the Woman's clubhouse on Engracia avenue.

Arrange Training Course For G. S. Troop Leaders

Mrs. P. E. Humphreys, acting neighborhood chairman, conducted the regular monthly meeting held Monday night in the lecture room of Torrance library. In addition to Mrs. Humphreys and Mrs. Olive Dixon, Field Executives for the Harbor Section, twelve Girl Scout leaders and troop committee members were present.

A new training course for Girl Scout Leaders of Brownie Intermediate Troops will be held in Room 1 at the Whites Point School, 1410 Filvias Street, San Pedro, on Wednesdays and Fridays, November 28 and 30, December 5, 7 and 12, from 9:30 to 1:30. For additional information regarding Girl Scout training, please contact Mrs. Robert Reid, Phone Lomita 2235-W.

Mrs. Dixon gave a very interesting report of the recent representative council meeting, when Mr. Markell, a Los Angels businessman and co-chairman with Mrs. Markell of the Council cookie committee, gave a pep talk on the approaching cookie sale. Mrs. Carl Gramling of Torrance will chair the Harbor Section cookie committee, again this year.

Mrs. W. E. Walton briefly reviewed the topics discussed at the regular meeting of the Harbor Section planning committee, which she attended in the absence of Mrs. Humphreys, District chairman.

Students Demonstrate Manuscript Writing

An impressive demonstration on manuscript writing was given by Dale Wickstrom's 5th-6th grade class at the regular monthly meeting of the Welteria PTA, Thursday. Samples of the students' handwriting were passed among the audience at the close of the demonstration.

Wickstrom's room also won the room prize for the most parents present at the meeting. A film "Willie and the Mouse" was shown, depicting the frustrations of white mice under controlled learning situations. Wandell Grove sang "Danny Boy," and "In the Still of the Night," accompanied by Mrs. R. Waegner at the piano.

Colors were presented by girls from the newly formed intermediate Girl Scout troop being sponsored by the PTA.

During the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Glen Harcastle, president, the standing rules were changed as outlined by Mrs. B. J. Michels, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Harcastle announced that a box for "Clothing for Korea" would be kept in the auditorium and anyone donating to this worthy cause could bring or send warm and usable clothing to the school.

A report of the success of the recent Halloween carnival and a word of thanks to everyone helping in any way, was given by Mrs. Bruce Howey, and Glen Harcastle, co-chairmen.

Club-Sponsored G. S. Troop Hopes to Earn Senior Rating

Girl Scout Troop 1161, sponsored by Torrance National Business and Professional Club, has selected officers for the new Scout year as follows:

Joan Laskaris, president; Dana Cecil, vice president; Peggy Wood, secretary; Joy Pearson and Grace Maddy, sergeants-at-arms; Connie Benner and Janice Desmond, patrol leaders. Members of this troop are discussing plans to qualify the group as a senior Girl Scout unit.

The girls hold their meetings in the home of their leader, Mrs. Herb Woods, with Mrs. J. E. Laskaris as co-leader.

Several of the girls are First Class Girl Scouts and are working for a Curved Bar Scout rating.

Various fields of Senior Girl Scouting will be study projects during the year.

Catholic Card Party This Evening

Mrs. William H. Cochran is chairman for this evening's Catholic-sponsored card party in Nativity Hall, Cota at Manuel avenue. Everyone is invited. Tallies may be purchased at the door.

Customary games will be played and at the close of play delicious refreshments will be served by the hostess committee.

Sandra Notes 7th Birthday

Sandra Chaykowski celebrated her seventh birthday Saturday with a lovely party at her home. Guests included Sharon Blackwell, Tonya and Darlene Jensen, Barbara Bennett, Andrea Silver, and Johnnie Chaykowski, all of Torrance, and Susie and Donnie Quinn of Artesia.

Assisting with games and refreshments was Mrs. Dorothy Quinn.

Lutheran Group to Elect 17th

The Junior Mission Band of First Lutheran Church will meet Saturday morning, November 17, at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Wesley Megow, the leader, asks all members to be present, as it will be an important meeting. Election of officers for the coming year will be held.

Professional Club Votes Three Into Membership

Elected into membership in the National Business and Professional Women's Club of Torrance Monday evening were Mrs. Virginia Faren, cosmetologist at McCown Drug Store; Mrs. Janet Bolinger, teacher in the Torrance School System; and Mrs. Betty Massie, secretary attached to the North Torrance Elementary School.

Mrs. Zada Ramsey, president of the Torrance club, will be guest speaker at the November 26 dinner meeting of the Long Beach National Club of which Miss Hazel Gray is president.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Minnie Brooks, chairman of the November dinner meeting, that Miss Emmy Schiller, M.D., connected with the Torrance Medical Group, will be speaker at the November 19 dinner meeting to be held in Ding How Cafe. Guests are welcome and reservations are to be made by November 16 by calling Mesdames Brooks, Jean Davis, Hazel Haworth or Doris Spoon, co-hostesses. Mrs. Ruth Robinson, chairman of the finance committee, will have an important announcement to make at the November dinner meeting.

On Tuesday, November 20 the Gardena Club will serve its public Affairs dinner and reservations are to be given to Mrs. Zada Ramsey before November 17. Mrs. Ramsey also announced the Bay Section breakfast which will be held at 9:00 a.m. Sunday, November 25 in Masonic Temple at Bell. Anyone wishing to attend, please call Mrs. Ramsey.

In connection with the Hawthorne talent show, a parade is to be held on November 24 at 10:00 a.m. and Mrs. Ramsey urges as many members as possible to appear. Please phone her for details.

The Los Angeles District meeting will be held on December 8 at 2:00 p.m. reservations for this meeting are to be made with Mrs. Ramsey, according to Helen Williams, news chairman.

Scholarship To Be Given

San Pedro Philharmonic and Artists Association, Inc. was recently presented with a year's scholarship by the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Arts, to be given to a serious student of music, preferably one who intends working for a degree. Applications are now being accepted, as the selection must be made before the opening of the February semester. Send complete personal and scholastic details to the San Pedro Philharmonic and Artists Association, Inc., 1313 Silvius avenue, San Pedro.

SISTERS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward have been entertaining as their house guests his sisters, Mrs. John Cole of Beaver Falls, Pa., and Mrs. Ted Robbins of Ellwood, Pa.

NOTE BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. VanDeventer will be guests today at a birthday celebration in Redlands given to honor his father, E. M. VanDeventer, 94.

Claudine Is Five

A surprised little girl was Claudine Metcalf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Metcalf of 3523 Spencer street, when a group of her little friends honored her on her fifth birthday last Monday afternoon.

Small fry enjoying games throughout the afternoon, then singing "Happy Birthday" were: Robin Glaze, Cynthia and Anita Carter, Jessie and Sharon Wyrick, Wanda Brant, and Charlene Metcalf. Mrs. Metcalf was assisted by Mrs. Orvan Glaze, Mrs. Roscoe Brant, and Mrs. Claude Forshey.

Mrs. Verne Bennett and Barbara Bennett were unable to attend the party, but sent gifts to the honoree.
