Holiday season is almost upon us. The school children are looking forward to their double vacation this weekend when they will be out of school for both Thursday and Friday. May we take this opportunity to wish each and every one of you a delightful and delicious Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sanders, Ward street, arrived here Friday, November 9, after a very enchanting trip to Colorado. The Sanders visited Mrs. Sanders' grandfather who lives in Boulder, Colorado. He is 91 years old, so their visit was one well worth remembering.

If any of you have missed Mrs. Evar Jansson's smiling face from the Walteria School office, you might be interested in knowing that the very prevalent flu bug had her down. She is better now, and another week will probably find her back on the job. Get well quick!

On our sick list this week we find the name of Mrs. Francis Carrillo. Hawthorne boulevard, who was ill all week with the virus infection.

By the way, folks, a word about the Christmas seals which most received in the mail last week. Nowadays when there are so many charitable demands on the pocketbook it is difficult to keep from overlooking some of the most important. I hope that all of us will be able to buy the seals this year, and in giving, realize that we are supporting one of the most worthy of causes.

Mr. and Mrs. Chrisman and son, formerly residents of Walteria, are here from Oregon. They are spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Clark Walker, Ocean avenue, while their home is being made ready for them.

Mrs. Mary Miller visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Collins in Huntington Park last Sunday, November 18.
