

Torrance Bethel Greets Newly Installed Deputy

Masons serving as "Secret Dads" were honored on Tuesday evening of last week at the meeting of Torrance Bethel 50, Job's Daughters, presided over by Miss Marian McDonald, honored queen. Special guests were introduced by the girls as a feature of the meeting.

Mrs. Edna Babcock, bethel guardian, was escorted and introduced as the new deputy grand guardian for the district which includes Wilmington, San Pedro, Lomita and Torrance. Mrs. Babcock related some of the events which took place at the Grand Guardian Council held recently in San Jose.

Miss Ann Marie Bishop, guide, who with Miss Marian MacDonald, honored queen, were delegates to the grand bethel at San Jose, gave a detailed report of the trip and their experiences in the northern city. Librarian Beverly Rodgers dedicated her report, "Courage," to the Secret Dads.

The bethel completed arrangements for their exemplification of the majority degree for the Masonic Lodge on November 23. An important installation practice has been scheduled for December 2.

In the banquet room the Thanksgiving theme was followed with pumpkins, corn husks, fruit and berries combining to form centerpieces for each of the long tables. Autumn-hued turkeys were the guests' favors.

Miss Sally Speck and her committee were responsible for the seasonal decorations and the promoter of hospitality, Mrs. Katherine Lane, assisted by Mesdames Florence Hedgecock, Illa Rodgers and Mary McDonald served refreshments of pumpkin pie, whipped cream, punch and coffee.
