

Legion Auxiliary Plans Month's Varied Affairs

American Legion Auxiliary, under chairmanship of Mrs. Mary Babcock, will entertain at the third in a series of monthly breakfasts Sunday morning, December 9, from 8 until 12 noon. Everyone is invited.

The regular meeting, set for Monday evening, December 11, will open with a pot-luck supper at 6:30 to be supervised by Mrs. Josephine Hopkins, rehabilitation chairman.

At 8 o'clock a business session will be conducted by the president, Mary Toombs. Initiation will be a feature of the meeting.

A Christmas-wrapped white elephant package will be auctioned during the evening and proceeds donated to the ever-increasing demands for rehabilitation and child welfare needs.

Annie Olson, junior past president, will open her home at 2118 Arlington avenue for a come-as-you-are breakfast on Friday, December 14, it was announced.

Perfect for the coldest day is the fleece lined storm coat with wide fur shawl collar and knitted wristlets.

Columbia Steel Group Sets Dance

Columbia Steel Employees Recreation Association will sponsor a dance to be held in American Legion Clubhouse on Saturday, December 15, from 9 until 1 a. m.

Music for dancing will be furnished by Les Tronsier and his orchestra, according to Miss Cubie Bohannon, chairman.

The public is invited. A charge of $1.00 per couple will be made to non-members of the group, and refreshments will be served free of charge, it was learned.

MR. AND MRS. CLAUDE LEE MACKAY JR.

Vivian Hazzard Becomes Bride of C. L. Mackey Jr.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church was the setting for one of the season's loveliest weddings Friday evening when Miss Vivian Claire Hazzard became the bride of Mr. Claude Lee Mackey Jr., USMC. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Henry Hazzard of 911 Acaia avenue and her bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Mackey Sr. of 645 Border avenue. Rev. Arthur Bello officiated.

The charming bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, chose as her wedding attire an exquisite gown of ivory satin styled in train with a Chantilly lace bodice and tiny self-covered buttons. A Juliet cap, trimmed in seed pearls and lace, held in place her full-length veil of illusion and her Colonial bouquet was composed of white orchids, stephanotis and bouvardia.

In the entourage were Miss Babs Hazzard, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and the Misses Marilyn Rozum and Ann Mondor, bridesmaids. Little Jenice Treloar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Treloar of this city, was flower girl in a dainty frock of yellow silk, her bouquet a diminutive Colonial arrangement.

The maid of honor was beautifully gowned in Nile green taffeta and she carried a Colonial bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums. Her costume was complemented by a picture hat of net chosen to match her dress. The bridesmaids' gowns, styled like the honor attendant's, were of gold taffeta with matching picture hats and they also carried Colonial bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Henry Foretay Jr. (Delores Fees) of Laguna Beach and formerly of Torrance, registered the guests. James Mackey attended his brother as best man and ushers were Henry Foretay of Laguna Beach and Harold Burgener of Los Angeles and formerly of Torrance.

Miss Amy Bourquin played the accompaniment for Mr. Lloyd O. Jones, baritone, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

At the reception in parish hall which immediately followed the church ceremony, Mrs. Hazzard received her guests in beige iridescent taffeta with brown velvet accessories and Mrs. Mackey wore black iridescent taffeta. Both mothers chose corsages of yellow roses to complete their costumes.

Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Macgregor of Detroit, Mich., uncle and aunt of the bride.

Assisting with reception arrangements were Miss Betty

Progressive Card Party Gala Affair for Juniors

As their social event of the month, Torrance Junior Woman's Club held a most successful progressive card party on Wednesday evening last week. Approximately 150 juniors and their guests attended the enjoyable affair.
