5 Good Reasons why wise travelers ride Santa Fe's 5 Great Trains

Here's what folks say about Santa Fe's five great daily trains between Los Angeles and Chicago:

"On Santa Fe trains I know I can leave on schedule in any weather . . . ride relaxed . . . arrive refreshed, right downtown."

"I like room to move around . . . to meet and talk to people. So I enjoy Santa Fe's friendly lounge and observation cars."

"Mm-mm! Lots of wonderful Fred Harvey food to choose from."

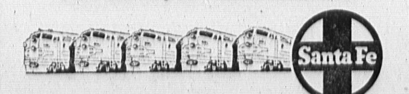

"I like privacy, so I travel Santa Fe . . . by myself in a roomette or bedroom, or with my family in a compartment or drawing room."

"For seeing the sights, up close, the big non-logging windows are great. And what sights, along Santa Fe's colorful Southwest route!"

No wonder more and more wise travelers "go Santa Fe . . . all the way."

ONLY SANTA FE offers such a wide choice of daily schedules and accommodations . . . such a famous, dependable fleet of clean, comfortable trains.

Hampton Players Make Debut in San Pedro

Members of Hampton Players, South Bay Little Theater group, will join with San Pedro's Footlighters Tuesday night to present a series of one-act plays at Leland Street Elementary School in San Pedro.

Both theater workshops are conducted as part of the adult education classes of Torrance and San Pedro.

The Hampton Players will present two one-act productions. The first, "Goodnight Please" by James L. Daggett, will be directed by Mary Woodson.

Included in the cast are Douglas McClay, Elbert Laycock, Ed Soucek, Jim Crain, Ethel Dowling, Jackie Lafferty and Dorothy Tunis. Hilda Munroe is acting as promoter and general assistant.

The other part of the Hampton Players program will be a dramatic skit featuring Midge Lund and Howard Courcy.

San Pedro's unit will present "Aria Da Capo," a fantasy, and William Saroyan's "Hello Out There," a tragedy.

This is the first time that the two theater groups have joined forces for a program. A return engagement is scheduled for Torrance early next year.

Dan Desmond, former Torrance High drama teacher, is the supervising director of the Hampton Players. Robert Riviera holds a similar position for the Footlighters.

The public is invited to attend the San Pedro show.

It takes a little fur . . . a bit of sparkle and glitter . . . something exciting and glamorous to add the extra enchantment to a girl's Christmas!

How super or how super-duper you can make those gifts, depends of course, upon your budget—but many of these glamorous gifts need not be expensive to be welcomed.

A little bit of fur can put a lot of excitement into a girl's Christmas stocking.

Chose a mink-necktie, or mink or ermine tails to accent basic smart ensembles. Give her a drowsy fur muff—the long-haired furs make up most beautifully and are surprisingly low priced.

Select one of the many new stoles or capes, if your budget permits, for a most exciting gift!

In the same mood for sparkle, that you can satisfy for a dollar or a hundred, come lovely costume jewelry pieces.

Since the new fashions demand lots of jewelry, there are wonderful things for your choosing. There are glitter-sparkle necklaces . . . pearl chokers and dog-collars . . . pins; ranging from dainty scatter sizes to bold, brazen medalion-sized charms to wear at the neckline, to pin on sweaters, at cuffs of blouses, coats and dresses, to pin anywhere for real excitement. There are distinctive novelty earrings—from button-beauties to chandelier-length rhinestone charms . . . to glitter smartly everywhere.

There's nothing smarter in the new bold jewelry mood, than the antique-finished medallion fobs that grace necklaces, pins, handbags and smart, wide leather belts.

And it's a cinch to click with your gift selections, if you choose for her a smart, new belt to cinch her waist. Choose it in soft or hard leather . . . velvet with glitter trim . . . novelty metallics . . . or in any of the smart new fabrics!

Pamper her vanity with a lovely boudoir set of matching comb, brush and mirror; there are other styles with matching powder boxes, perfume bottles and other accessories.

Or give her a distinctive, smart compact to tuck into her favorite handbag.

Pair Held on Burglary Charge

Two young burglar suspects charged with looting Ruel Moulton's service station at 235th and Western avenue last month were held to answer in Long Beach Superior Court next December 21 when they faced City Judge Otto B. Willett last week.

Ordered to appear before the Superior Court were Howard Nelson Louis Walker, 22, of Culver City; and Willie Edgar Holder, 25, of Oklahoma.

The pair were arrested by Torrance police officers A. Jackson and Bruce Gooler in the pre-dawn hours of November 30 at the station. The officers were making a routine patrol of the area at the time.

Bail for Holder was set at $2500 by Judge Willett, and bail for Walker was set at $1000.

Murder Mile Repairs Due In January

Pacific Coast Highway's "Murder Mile" won't get any improvements until after the holidays, the State Division of Highways has announced.

The dangerous and deadly intersection of Pacific Coast Highway and Newton street in Waverly is scheduled to undergo $9500 worth of repaving, designed to cut down accidents.

Work on installation of traffic islands and better lighting will begin shortly after the first of the year, the state said.

Go to Head YM Campaign for 1952

A. J. Geok, chairman of the board, Bank of America, will be general chairman of the Los Angeles YMCA's 1952 support campaign in February. He will head an organization of more than 4000 volunteer workers who will seek $650,000 in contributions for support of the organization's youth work in 23 branches throughout Los Angeles.

Supervisor Raymond V. Darcy, who has long sought a solution to the county's water problem, said that under this contract the Water Resources Board will pay all expenses incurred in the work, except departmental overhead. The work will be done in the vicinity of Manhattan Beach.

The agreement limits the expenditures to $450,000, which money was appropriated in 1951 by the State Legislature to the State Resources Board for the purpose of finding some means for the correction and prevention of sea water intrusion into the West Coastal Basin of Los Angeles County and other critical coastal areas.
