

North Torrance Tattler

By HELEN ALLISON
MEMO 1-1310

Perry room mothers and teachers enjoyed a potluck dinner and exchanged gifts at the monthly meeting. The Christmas theme was prevalent as the gayly wrapped gifts were presented. The business of the month was carried on as usual.

The El Nido Parents group held a Christmas party this Tuesday, December 11, at the new school.

The Kickin' Chelkens, a square dance club of Northrup Aircraft, attended the ever popular Drunkard this week. Those in our area with the group included Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bates and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Holechek, both of Glenburn avenue.

Our sympathy is with Doris Crosier, a teacher at Perry School, upon the recent death of her mother.

Cheryl Sale, 17208 Ardath, is now 7 years old. This week, eight little girls honored their friend at a party with a pink cake and all the trimmings. A lively game of pinning the nose on Santa preceded the opening of the gifts, which added to the collection of story-book dolls Cheryl already has.

Glen Sherwood, 17201 Ardath, celebrated his birthday last week with a very different cake. The very tasty cake was in form of a boat, which more than thrilled the boys of the neighborhood.

This reporter was amused this Thursday while watching the wrestling matches to hear Jules Strong Bow mention the name of Bill Eaton, 17203 Atkinson. It seems as if only fan mail to Lord Blears addressed "My Lord" and ending in "Your Obedient Servant" will be read. All mail otherwise addressed would be discarded. Bill wanted to know if he started and ended his letter in the requested manner could he call him (Lord Blears) anything he care to in between? Some sense of humor has Bill!

Boy Scout Troop 761 spent the weekend at Camp Arthur Letts.

We really should drag out the "Anniversary Waltz" this month. Congratulations go to the Anthony Bilottis of 18328 Ashley, the Ed Collins and also the Henry Brewers.

Girl Scout Troop 1277, under the leadership of Evelyn Holechek, went ice skating at Hines this weekend. Those attending included Fay Anderson, Joan Beekham, Nancy Gibson, Gloria Hendricks, Connie Jaime, Gloria Landcaster, Mary Ogawa, Donna Mae Pash, Jean Sorrell, Sandra Nelson, Darlene Holechek and Yvonne Jiminez.

The waffle luncheon held at the home of Enid Runsted, 18236 Roslin, was a very successful affair. Many parents as well as teachers appeared for the meal. The door prize was won by Dorothy Leninger and the game prize by Ann Collins. Mrs. Mathewson also won a prize.

Congratulations to the Bells, of 17033 Falda, who have a new boss in the house. A boy was born to Margaret earlier this week.

Mrs. Duane Sherwood, who has been ill for the past week, is now in Torrance Memorial Hospital. We all sincerely hope Martha will soon be well and her old self again. If good wishes would make it so, Martha is practically as good as new right now!

How many of you have given some thought to the outdoor lighting contest? This event is conducted each Christmas by the Torrance Torrance Garden Club of Torrance. With a small amount of work and imagination you could make your home a living Christmas scene. Think it over, won't you?

Any child who is ill and cannot attend the annual Christmas party at El Camino on the 22nd of December will be paid a personal visit, receiving toys, fruit and candy, so said President Jack White at the monthly meeting of the NTCIA this week. Many hundreds are expected to attend this affair.

While the children are looking forward to the party, the adults are also anticipating a grand time at McMaster Hall this Saturday, December 15. The El Camino dance orchestra will supply the music for the evening and all are urged to attend.
