Job's Daughters Install Officers in Colorful Rites

In a most impressive ceremony Saturday evening in Masonic Temple, Miss Mary Ann Lenton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lenton of 1417 West 220th street, was installed as honed queen of Bethel 50, International Order of Job's Daughters.

The Book of Gold theme was used and from a lovely cross in the West, purple and gold lights shone out.

The 49th semi-annual rites opened with the address of welcome given by Mr. William Bremner, past associate guardian of the Bethel, who served as master of ceremonies. His entrance was followed by the escort of the Bethel guardian, Mrs. Edna Babcock, and the associate guardian, Mr. Leonard Kane. Marian McDonald, retiring honored queen, was escorted to the East and introduced. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses with purple streamers. Assisting her were Donna Wolf, Beverly Luster, Dorothy Warming, Carol Clark, Joann Sandstrom, Irene Hoy and Pat Cleve.

Barbara Jo Ferguson and Kathie Warren, chorists, were escorted to the East where each held a large gold plume. They were dressed in yellow organdy formal with tiaras of yellow chrysanthemums and violets in their hair.

As each officer entered the Bethel she signed the Book of Gold, which was placed in the East. The reading was given by Mary Learman.

Jackie Lenton carried the Bible to the altar, escorted by Barbara Jo Ferguson and Kathie Warren. As Jackie Lenton knelt at the altar, Patti Swenson sang the Lord's Prayer. Beverly Luster escorted the flag of our country.

Appointive officers installed were: Susan Babcock, assistant musician; Diane Allen, assistant recorder; Peggy Wood, director of choir; Judy Cook, electrician; Alice Olson, page; Elizabeth Hedgecock, outer guard; Charlene Grace, inner guard; Glenda Wells, junior custodian; Carol Maloy, senior custodian; Dora Ritko, chaplain; Janet Poh, librarian; Janet Robison, musician; Janice Crabtree, treasurer; Marilyn Edwards, Carolyn Kush, Sally Hickman, Leta Brady and Sally Speck, messengers. Elective officers were: Marshal, Jane Moffatt; guide, Carol Campbell; junior princess, Ann Marie Bishop; senior princess, Anne Olson.

Before the coronation of the queen, Patti Swenson sang "You'll Never Walk Alone."

The Bethel choir were wristlets of yellow chrysanthemums and violets with purple streamers. The appointive officers carried Books of Gold with the same flowers. The elective officers had Books of Gold with yellow nois, centered with violets and yellow roscuds. The honored queen's flowers were also yellow roses with purple streamers.

During presentations, Mary Ann Lenton presented Marian McDonald with her past honored queen's pin and Mary Ann received the honored queen's pin. The princesses' pins were then handed down. Jackie Lenton, sister of the Incoming queen, was jewel bearer.

Mary Ann Lenton received a beautiful rosewood gavel from her parents. After the closing prayer, Patti Swenson sang "The End of a Perfect Day." The benediction was given by Mr. Leonard Babcock, master of the Torrance Masonic Lodge.

Ushers for the evening were Gary Ferguson and Bud Smith. Karen Warren, Cousin of the honored queen, attended the guest book.

Gold Stars To Install January 2

Yule Play Features PTA Program

Torrance Elementary PTA meets at 7:15 tonight at the school auditorium. A Christmas play, "The Star of Long Ago," will feature the children of the school.

The executive board met Tuesday of last week at the home of the president, Mrs. Hartley Carr.

Principal business concerned aid to less fortunate families at Christmas. Baskets of food, and toys will be given this year as usual, it was decided. Contributions of canned goods and toys will be appreciated, so that welfare funds may be extended.
