NORTH TORRANCE TATTLER

The NTCIA gave their annual Christmas dance at the McMaster hall last Saturday and I might say that it was one of the gayest crowds to get together in some time. The El Camino orchestra played number after number and was never met with a more appreciative audience. The best waltzers in the vicinity proved to be the Styles of Crenshaw boulevard. An evening of dancing of every kind from fox trot to Charleston; a conga line was even in full swing. The dance was climaxed with coffee and cakes and after a session of carols the crowd began to disperse. Much credit goes to the new ways and means chairman Bob Richter, who did well on this, his first venture of the year. Another dance is to be given in January and if you missed this one be sure to be on hand for it!

An evening of canasta and refreshments followed. Those attending were Delbert Alford, Hamilton Blacks, the Schultzes, Bronsons (Clyde and Walt), Don Bernds, Vernon Crumbs and the Bert Johnsons.

Every home will have a Christmas tree if the Alford and the Blacks have anything to do with it! They are selling them at Atlantic and Center.

We were both surprised and delighted to have as a guest in our home this week Mrs. Belle Allison of Shawnee, Oklahoma. Mrs. Allison is the 86-year-old grandmother of J. R. Allison, my husband. Getting in on the decorating of the tree brought memories to this white-haired lady who recalled the days when only popcorn and cranberries were strung on the tree for decoration.

Congratulations to the W. G. Montgomerys upon the birth of Ronald Wayne, a lust 8-pound, 7-ounce. The Montgomerys have a daughter, Cheryl, and reside at 17217 Falda.

Cub Scout Pack 761 had a very exciting Christmas party at McMaster hall. Many presents were exchanged and the refreshments heartily enjoyed. Candy apples were given by the Mothers Club, a newly-formed group who served in the capacity of both refreshment committee and entertainment committee. Five Webelos graduated into Boy Scouts: Leslie Bloomfield, Charles Jalo, John Simon, Wayne Winther and Kenneth Begano. Mrs. Rose McPherson, 3215 West 187th street, has taken on a newly-formed den of eight boys in the new tract on 190th street.

Don't forget the party at El Camino this Saturday, December 22. Every child is welcome. A movie will be shown and there will be treats for all!

With the lights shining from the windows, carols in the air, and the last-minute rush of shopping, seems that now old St. Nick, is on the rooftop. I want to take this opportunity to wish all of you a very, very merry Christmas!

Japan-Based Soldier To Appear On Radio

Pfc. Frederick Cowlishaw, now stationed in Japan, will send Christmas greetings to his mother, Mrs. Henrietta Cowlishaw, 17228 Korumbum, via radio on Christmas eve.

Pfc. Cowlishaw will be one of the many servicemen from all parts of the world who will appear on radio station KFI's GI Christmas Greeting program. The program will begin at 6:30 p.m. December 24, and continue through the early hours of Christmas Day. Mrs. Cowlishaw will also receive a recording of her son's words, the radio station has announced.
