Walteria News Notes

By BETTY MITCHELL
Phone Lomita 2635-W

Well, the Christmas season is already upon us, and the children are making the most of their vacation. Harried parents are hurriedly trying to get their last minute shopping done and Christmas cards finished and on their way. After all the rush is over, this year the very merriest of Christmases ever. Hope you can relax and enjoy yourselves.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Pendleton, of Hawthorne boulevard, had welcome guests last Sunday, December 16, when they were host to Mr. and Mrs. William Bartlemay of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Watson of Hollywood.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller, Neece avenue, left with their daughter-in-law last week on an extended trip through Georgia and on to Detroit, Michigan. Hope they don't run into too much of that frigid weather we've been hearing about.

Mrs. Margaret Dowd, Walteria Librarian, wishes to extend to all her library patrons, the sincerest and best of holiday greetings. The circulation of books for November reached a new high of 2910. We certainly have cause to be proud of this community and its growing facilities.

The school party for children which is an annual affair sponsored by the Walteria Business Men's Club, will be held Friday, December 21, in the School Auditorium. These affairs are always a great success and a lot of fun for all who go, young or old, so try to get out. You'll probably meet lots of your friends there. The beautiful tree for this occasion was decorated by the Pandora Club.

Miss Jo Ann Sumpter, of 212 street, accompanied by Mrs. Francis Sumpter and children returned Friday after a two weeks visit with relatives in San Antonio, Texas.

Anxiously awaiting company this week are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Combs, Neece avenue, as they have received word that their son, Charles Combs, wife and infant daughter, Vickie, will leave Washington, D.C. to come home for Christmas. "Chuck" who has been stationed with the U. S. Air Force will leave on December 18 and expects to arrive home for the holiday season prior to being shipped overseas.

The next meeting of the Pandora Club will be held on Thursday, December 20, at the recreation hall. This will be their annual Christmas party.

The WSCS of Walteria held their Christmas meeting at the Recreation Hall on Monday, December 17. The group had a short business meeting during which they discussed plans for the paragonage now being furnished for the new minister coming to the Community Methodist Church by January 1. If any of our readers have contributions they would like to make for this they can do so by contacting any one of the women in the society. After the business meeting, the ladies enjoyed a lovely musical program given by the MYF under the direction of Mrs. Jean Cramer. Following the program, sandwiches, cookies, and punch were served.

Mrs. Rodman of Los Angeles was a visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Plake, 242 street, last Friday, December 7.

STATE CAPITAL

First state capital of Missouri was St. Charles. Selection of Jefferson City as the capital was decided upon in the year 1820.

TORRANCE LIQUORS: WHERE YOUR BEVERAGE DOLLAR BUYS MORE

Torrance Liquors, Torrance's newest and most complete liquor store, is much more than the name implies. In addition to a large selection of imported wines, liquors, and champagnes, they also carry a complete line of sundries, magazines, tobaccos, and candy — milk and bread too, for the neighborhood shopper.

Located at the corner of Crenshaw and Torrance Blvd., the modern new business is owned and operated by Chick Schneider and Harold Morse. Torrance shoppers are already familiar with their friendly service, and for this reason, like to drop in at Torrance Liquors for all their needs from bubble gum to champagne. Ably assisting Chick and Harold in liquor dispensing is affable Sid Greenfield.

Incidentally, when you go in for your holiday purchases and champagnes, they also carry a complete line of sundries, range footballer, Tommy Smith.
