Airman Helps Plan Party

Pfc. James Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Foster, 1300½ West 218th street, was one of a group of Air Force men who set up plans to play Santa Claus to Japanese children in an orphanage near Tokyo.

Foster was in on the planning of the event, but got transferred a few days before Christmas, so didn't get a chance to see how successful the party was.

The 21-year-old former Torrance high student is now stationed in Tokyo. A teletype mechanic, he has been in the service for a year.
