Welch Revamps Quintet For Game With Narbonne

Helmet Trophy Race Scheduled

A traditional old race trophy goes back into circulation again at Carrell Speedway on Sunday afternoon when the fields in the first annual AAA Sprint Bowl lines up for a crack at the Italian Helmet.

The helmet has been identified with auto racing for more than 30 years, with most of the knights of the roaring road of yesteryear having worn it with distinction.

Three Varsity Players Move Back to Bees

Rex Welch will preview his newly remodeled Tartar varsity basketball team Wednesday afternoon as Torrance takes on its final pre-Bay League opponent, the Narbonne Gauchos, on the Lomita school's cramped floor. The prelim will start at 2:30.

Welch revamped the still-winless Tartars this week, dropping three varsity performers—two of them starters—back to the Bee team for more seasoning.

Returning to the Bee squad are Guard Bob Moon, Forward Jerry Farrar and Center Harold Holmes. Beth Moon and Farrar, who have had starting varsity roles, are sophomores. Holmes is a senior.

Thus, the 1952 season will be one of building for the future. Welch explained that the move was made to give the three boys—whom he considers good prospects for future varsity use—a chance to play against opponents of their same size and age.

The Tartar varsity mentor is also handling the Bee team this year.

With Moon, Holmes and Farrar moving back to the Bees, Welch will be forced to make several changes in his varsity starting lineup.

The five that will open against Narbonne will look like this: Larry Roy, who has been playing guard, will move to a forward spot to team with the dependable Jack O'Call. Tom Wolford, a rapidly improving junior, has ousted veteran Guy Farrington from the starting center role, and Lee Martinson and Bob Maloy will pair at guards. Martinson, Maloy and Wolford are newcomers to the starting lineup.

Farrington and Chic Cope are the front line reserves. Mid-year graduation will cost the Tartars the services of O'Call, leaving a big gap in the starting five.

turned to school this year after spending a year in the Army.

Torrance will be seeking its first win of the season. The Tartars have dropped their first seven games. However, four of the teams that dumped the Tartars are rated as the best prep cage clubs in Southern California. These are Compton, St. Anthony's, Huntington Beach and Chaffey. The other losses have been to Lynwood, Long Beach Jordan and Long Beach Wilson. Both Wilson and Jordan have impressive records to date.

Narbonne's season will end in January, just as the Bay League gets started.

This will be the final basketball practice game for the Tartars before they open the Bay League season, January 4 against Inglewood here.

Coach Wayne Sloss' surprising Gauchos are paced by Forward Dick Gazeley and Center Ron Parrish. Joe Hansen holds down the other forward spot, while Cullen Deck and Carl Gimenez start at guards. Gimenez re-
