

Mettler Kapers

By JINNY JONES
Lomita 1256-J

Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Alice Matten of 1726 W. 234th street in the loss of her husband, Walter C. Matten, who passed away the morning of December 29 at the family home. With her at the time was a son Don, and this week, their son Bob is home, after flying from Manila where he is stationed with the Navy. The funeral was held last Thursday and was attended by many neighbors and friends. Arriving from Omaha, Nebraska were Ferd Jacobsen and his daughter, Jackie, and Mr. Matten's sister from Los Angeles, Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sues entertained the grieving family and their relatives with a dinner. Many other neighbors did what little they could to help, as Mr. Matten had been a truly wonderful neighbor with always a smile and cheery hello. As a small token of appreciation to Mr. Matten a beautiful spray of flowers was sent to the funeral by all the close neighbors.

While there is sadness on 234th street way, there is happiness on Middlebrook road for Mrs. Lillian Middleton happily announces the birth of her third grandchild, little Linda Jeanne Middleton born January 5 to Larry and Jeanne Middleton at the Naval hospital at Carlsbad where Larry is stationed with the Marine Corps. Linda weighed 8 pounds 14 1/2 ounces, and is the young couple's first child. Mrs. Sally Jenkins of Torrance is the maternal grandmother. Congratulations!

Visiting Mrs. Middleton and her daughter Betty is Mr. Harry Wenger of Topeka, Kansas for a few weeks.

Howard and Lois Black and daughter Wendy Susan, 3 years old. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H. Archer Lewis of Torrance and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ludke of Portland, Ore. Mr. Lewis is an industrial engineer at Columbia Steel Company.

A most enjoyable New Year's Eve party was held at the home of Virginia and Melvin Miller of 1823 Marinette street when they entertained the Young Married couples group of the First Baptist Church. Approximately 18 guests attended.

Tuesday evening found the Circle 7 girls holding their first meeting of the New Year at the home of Mrs. Iris Duncan with Mrs. Jo Devenish as co-hostess. Mrs. Betty Morehead, chairman, presided over the meeting.

The Torrance PTA Council is sponsoring a course starting today, January 10, a series of four lectures at the Fern avenue school auditorium, time 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. covering their dental health program. The speaker is Miss Adelle Davis whose subject is: "Preparation of food for your family." Remember the lectures start today and will continue on January 17, 24 and 31. If you need transportation call Mrs. Beavers at Lomita 1560-J. Mrs. Moffitt at Torrance 1898-J. Mrs. Carr at Torrance 399-W. For child care while you are attending the lectures contact Mrs. Carr.

Get-well-wishes are still extended to Mrs. Ottilie Buckley who is confined to the Garfield Hospital in Alhambra. She has resided with her son and his family. Mr. Forrest Buckley of Reynolds drive.

Supervisors Okay Carson Street Sewer

Installation of sanitary sewers in Carson Street between Dolores and Grace Streets was expedited Tuesday when the Board of Supervisors approved the complete plans and specifications for the project.

Memorial Fund Started for Polio Victim

A Don Hall Frame Memorial Fund has been established at El Camino College to help students over financial rough spots according to Forrest G. Murdock college president.

Mr. Frame, who was a member of the college administrative staff, died December 20 following a post polio operation. A spontaneous request for such a fund came upon the family's request that friends refrain from sending flowers.

Friends and acquaintances of Don Frame have been invited to take part in the establishment of the memorial, according to Murdock. A committee composed of Frame's colleagues and students is being established to accept cash gifts and administer the fund.

Checks may be sent to Don Hall Frame Memorial Fund, El Camino College, El Camino California. Information may be obtained by calling ME 6014-6531 or Plymouth 6-1421.

Four Escape Crash Hurts

Four persons escaped possible serious injuries here last week after their cars met at the intersection of Sepulveda and Pennsylvania avenue.

Richard Q. Darnold, 47, of 4473 Del Amo, told police that he had started to turn left on Pennsylvania when another car, driven by Robert L. Begano, 21, of 2765 Gramercy avenue, attempted to pass him.

Darnold's auto careened into a power pole following the impact. Neither he nor his son, Henry, reported any injuries. Ann Mondor, of 2765 Gramercy avenue, was riding with Begano.

Free Tests For Typists Announced

A free testing service for typists, stenographers, and office workers is being conducted by the typing and shorthand classes of the Torrance Adult School.

Adults and industry may secure certificates showing the speed and proficiency of office workers in the various office skills. Mack Landar, instructor of the class, has been executive secretary for many years and has worked closely with industry in such a program.

This testing service is run in conjunction with the typing classes held each Monday.

Deadline for Business License for Business

Today is the final day for renewing city business licenses without incurring a penalty. It was announced at the City Hall yesterday.

In previous years the deadline has been the last day of February, officials said.

Wednesday, and Thursday nights at 6:30 in room 205 of Torrance High School, and Tuesday nights at 6:30 in room 204.

Those with special problems relating to business education and this testing service are invited to discuss matters with Mr. Landar at a regular meeting of the class.
