

Church Ceremony Unites Koshak, Perschy Families

At home in Alexandria, Va., following a honeymoon in Pennsylvania are Lt. John Gaylord Koshak, United States Army, and his bride, the former Miss Charlotte Perschy of Washington, D. C.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perschy of Washington and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John J. Koshak of 2334 W. 236th street.

The couple exchanged nuptial vows in an impressive ceremony performed December 29 in St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, Washington. A reception at Old Williamsburg Club immediately followed the church ceremony.

The new Mrs. Koshak was graduated from high school in the nation's capital and is presently completing studies which will qualify her as a conference secretary. The bridegroom, a second lieutenant, serving with the Army Engineers, is stationed at Belvoir, Va. He received his diploma from Torrance High in February '48, and following post graduate work at the same school, entered El Camino College for a course of study prior to his Army enlistment.

Gold Star Mothers Set Installation Ceremony

Torrance Memorial Chapter of American Gold Star Mothers will hold its annual installation of officers at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, January 15, in American Legion Hall, Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Walter H. Boyd of Long Beach, national president of the organization, will head the group of Long Beach members who form the installation team.

New officers for the chapter for 1952 are Edith Erbe of Gardena, who was re-elected president; Lillie Streicher of Torrance; first vice president; Opal Andrews of Gardena, second vice president; Phyllis Hamilton of Lomita, secretary; Jeannette King of Torrance, treasurer; Orpha Wilson of Redondo Beach, chaplain; Cleo Barnett of Torrance, color guard, and Gertrude Lawrence of Redondo Beach, sergeant-at-arms. Helen Smith and Regina Cunningham of Torrance were reappointed color bearers, and Beatrice Neigh musician. Phyllis Hamilton has been secretary of the chapter since its inception, and Orpha Wilson also has served for the same period.

The installation ceremony is open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

Women of Moose Make Year's Plans

At the meeting of Torrance Chapter 44, Women of the Moose, held last Wednesday evening, reports were made on the success of the children's party given at Christmas—stockings sent to Harbor Hospital Children's Ward, and baskets given to needy families. A lovely hand bag was the co-workers' gift to their senior regent.

At an executive board meet-

TO PRESENT PROGRAM . . . Colette Nance, pianist; Leslie Bringham, basso-cantante; and Jean Payne, accompanist, will be presented in informal recital by Palos Verdes Community Arts Association on Sunday, January 13 at 4 p.m. in Malaga Cove School auditorium. There will be no admission charge for the program; interested persons are cordially invited. Exceptional sensitiveness, musical intelligence and unusually fine technique mark Mrs. Nance as a performer of distinction. She will play The Variations in C Minor (Beethoven); Nocturne in F Sharp and The Fantasia Impromptu (Chopin); Nocturne in F Sharp Toccata (Khataturian); Sonetto Petrarca and Rhapsodie No. 6 (Liszt).

DETROIT VISITOR

Mrs. Simon Jessome arrived Tuesday from her home in Detroit for an indefinite visit with her cousin, Mrs. John V. Murray of 1912 Andree avenue, and other relatives.

ing held Tuesday evening of this week at the home of the senior regent, plans were made for the coming year.

Regular meetings will be held each Wednesday beginning this month, it was announced.

Hampton Players Schedule Production for February

With their winter offering of "The Bees and the Flowers" ready for presentation February 8 and 9 at the Torrance High School auditorium, the Hampton Players are looking forward to another hit production. And if their rendition of "The Silver Cord" last fall at the Redondo Union High School auditorium is any criterion, they should have little worry about the success of their present offering.

"The Bees and the Flowers," by Frederick Konner and Albert Manheimer, is a comedy in two acts which will be remembered in the movie version as "Three Daring Daughters."

Lina Kelly, Hollywood Riviera, plays the part of the gay divorcee home with a new husband (unknown to her three daughters) and Bob Reid, Torrance, the new husband who has a trying time to win the favor of the daughters. This is a fast-moving situation comedy with a fine supporting cast.

Don't forget: "The Bees and the Flowers," Torrance High School auditorium, February 8 and 9.

FROM SCHENECTADY

Mr. Michele Giacquinto Sr. arrived this week from his home in Schenectady, N. Y. for a visit with his son and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Giacquinto of 2228 Gramercy avenue. The visit afforded the easterner the opportunity to become acquainted with his two-year-old grandson, Nicky, who was born in Japan where his daddy was stationed with the U. S. Navy.

LUNCHEON GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Lincoln entertained as their recent luncheon guests her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold D. Haskell of Los Angeles and Balboa. The guests, who were enroute to Nassau, Bahamas Islands, plan to travel until July.
