

Grand Opera To Come to Harbor Area

A major musical event by professional and artist students and members of the Opera Department of the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Arts will take place February 5 at the San Pedro High School Auditorium. It was announced by Dr. Oscar Wagner, president and director of the noted Southland school.

Starring Conrad Schultz and Yola Casselle, prize winners of the Atwater Kent auditions, the Opera Department under the musical direction of Herbert Weiskopf and stage director Glynn Ross, will present Puccini's famed opera "Madama Butterfly" under the auspices of the San Pedro Philharmonic and Artists Association.

Tickets for the performance may be secured in this area from Mrs. W. M. Schildmeyer or Wilfred Jeffery. Seats are $1.80 for adults and students, high school age or under, are $1.20.

CDAs Judge Students Annual Poetry Contest

Entries in the annual poetry contest at Nativity School were judged at a meeting of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, Monday evening. Appropriate ceremonies were held and prizes presented at the school on Tuesday, with Mrs. Bernard Harwood, grand regent, representing the court.

First prize winners for their grades were: Freddie Poor of the fourth grade; John Webb, fifth and Nella MacDonald in sixth grade. This comprised Group I. Group II winners were Kathleen Garaghy in seventh and Brenda Martin in eighth, with Frederick Pfadt selected as third winner in Group II.

Committee chairmen reporting at the meeting were Mesdames M. N. Felker, social welfare; Frank H. Forester, share the faith; Lyle J. O'Hara, program and J. J. MacDonald, extension.

Mrs. John Melville discussed plans for the annual card party at parish hall on January 28, for which she and Mrs. Lawrence Gitcher are co-chairmen.

Refreshments were served by Mesdames Melville, Gitcher, Clara Goodson, Albert Stevens, Douglas Schnorr and Lyle O'Hara.

VFW Auxiliary Plans Sewing Meet Today

Members of VFW Auxiliary to Post 3251, at their last meeting, reported an interesting visit to Sawtelle Veterans Hospital during the holidays.

The auxiliary will resume sewing activities for the hospital at their meeting, 10 a.m. today, at the home of Mrs. Carl Ramsey, 2262 W. 231st street. A large attendance is expected.

Members planning to attend are asked to supply sandwiches. Coffee will be served by the hostess.

Next regular meeting of the Auxiliary has been called for January 22.

Elementary PTA Plans Pot Luck

Torrance Elementary PTA will hold a pot luck supper this evening at 6 o'clock in the school auditorium immediately preceding the regular business meeting to be conducted by Mrs. Hartley Carr, president. Fathers are expected.

Families whose surname begins with A through J are asked to supply casseroles for 12. K through R, salad; S through Z, dessert for 12. Teachers will supply rolls and butter. Coffee will be served by the PTA. Parents are advised to provide table service and milk for their children.

An interesting program of music has been planned, to be augmented with a short health film.

MARYLOU NOREAN HOVLID

Miss Hovlid Joins Ranks Of Charming Brides-Elect

Miss Marylou Norean Hovlid this week offered the traditional box of chocolates to the members of Omega Phi Delta Sorority at Long Beach State College to announce her engagement to Charles Bryan Crouch of Long Beach.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hovlid of 1715 Plymouth street, Long Beach and formerly of this city. Marylou attended Torrance schools and received her diploma here in '49, and is a member of Torrance Bethel Job's Daughter. She is presently enrolled at Long Beach State College following two years study at Long Beach City College, where she was a member of Kappa service sorority, and served on the Associated Women Students advisory board.

Her fiancée is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crouch of Long Beach, is a recent graduate of USC and is employed as an engineer with Douglas Aircraft. No wedding date has been set by the popular young couple.

Dance Plans, Salvage Set By Mothers

Wednesday, February 16, has been selected as the date for the Nativity Mothers Club-sponsored dance to be held in American Legion clubhouse. Music for dancing will be furnished by Tom Ulrich's Rhythmaires, according to Mrs. Veda Boudreaux, chairman.

Tickets for the benefit affair are being sold at 50 cents per person.

Refreshments will be dispensed at a snack bar during the evening, it was announced.

The Mothers Club will conduct a drive for papers, rags and grease on Wednesday, January 23 at the school with Mrs. Donald Davis as chairman. Persons who need transportation for their donations may call her at Torrance 1463-M.

There's Still Time to Join

Of special interest to busy mothers of school age families is the nutrition course now being conducted at the Fern Avenue School.

Adelle Davis, well known nutritionist and author, conducts this class in conjunction with the dental program of Torrance Council PTA. The class will meet Thursday from 9:20 to 11:20 a.m., and it is still possible to join.

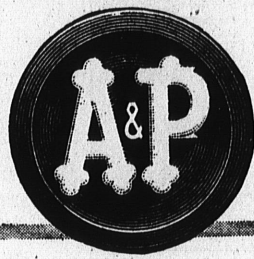

Anyone who needs transportation from the Seaside Elementary School area may call Mrs. Gruver at Fr. 5-1681 in Seaside Ranchos. Mrs. Ryan, Fr. 5-1719 in Seaside Heights, and Mrs. French, Fr. 5-1380 in Hollywood Riviera.

Soroptimists Hear Camp Fire Representative

Cynthia Keys, Camp Fire representative, was guest speaker at yesterday's luncheon meeting of Harbor District Soroptimist Club held in San Pedro YACA.

Mrs. Hazel Scott Coomes president, reminded members to bring white elephants for sale to the January 30, 7 o'clock dinner meeting in Mrs. Kathryn Lynch's 1932 Pacific Coast Highway home. Miss Ann Gudinger of San Pedro will show pictures of her European tour.

The most recent regional meeting of Soroptimists at Los Angeles was reported by Miss Gertrude.

Customers' Corner

"Hoody Neighbor"

That's just how we feel about the 6 million folks who call on us every day! That's how we'd like them to feel about us, too. And most of them do—simply because A&P has always been known as the friendly, "neighborly" place to shop. That "warm" feeling by our customers has been going on for a long time now. And in that spirit we think of you and are doing our best to see that A&P is all that you expect it to be. If it isn't, tell us. Incidentally, if your A&P store manager does call you "neighbor," rather than by name, we think you'll know why.
