The W.S.C.S. held their meeting for the month on Monday, Jan. 21, in the recreation hall in Walteria. After a very full business meeting, the women were treated to a talk by the director of religious education at the Spanish American Institute on Figueroa St. with a were also entertained with a couple of piano solos by one of the boys who attend the school. According to those attending, the youngster was very talented. Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held the first part of March and also for a flower show the middle of May. After the meeting the women enjoyed cookies and coffee furnished by Circle 2.

Johnny Gore celebrated his eighth birthday with a party on Saturday, Jan. 19. Neighborhood boys attended the function and enjoyed many games and scrumptious refreshments. Johnny lives on Neece Ave. and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Gore.

Week-end guests of Mrs. Lorine Harline, Los Codona Ave. were Mr. and Mrs. John Rahn of Bell. Also calling on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Doug Harline of Placentia and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harline of Los Angeles.

The M.Y.F. experienced a very inspirational meeting recently when 10 young people joined the church. Reverend Bowling conducted the baptismal and transfer of memberships. A wooden cross gilded with light from two tall candles occupied the center of the worship table. Gwen Chaffin, song leader, led the group of 36 young people in the hymns. Business meeting was conducted by Phil Falkenstein. Worship speaker for the evening was Doralee Chaffin who gave "Miracle on Sunset Boulevard" a story of a movie made on the Christophers, a philanthropic organization. Mike Trantham read the scripture. The group was hosted by the Pacific Palisades Community church on Sunday, Jan. 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Combs, Neece Ave., gave a farewell dinner honoring Sgt. Charles M. Combs and his family on Friday night. Following the party, "Chuck" left for Camp Stone, man from which he expects to be sent overseas in the near future.

Talking about the mumps, the Kettering family on Neece Ave. has really had them. First young Paul came down with them, then his sister Geron, and last week Mother, Margaret Kettering, was beautifully swollen up. May we wish them an end to their private epidemic.

The Pandora Club of Walteria met last Thursday evening. After a short business meeting the members and guests played several games. Guests for the evening were Mrs. Beck, guest of Mrs. Ziske, and Mrs. C. San Paola guest of Mrs. San Paola. Co-hostess for the evening was Mrs. Hancock. Prize winners for the meeting were Mrs. Moton, Mrs. Penny, Mrs. Beck, and Mrs. Jewell.

Mrs. F. Ziske and her son, Jerry, visited Friday evening, Jan. 25 at the home of her son, Robert Ziske, 24232 Adolph St., Walteria.

Mid-week guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Plake and family of W. 242 St., was Mrs. Jennie Rodman of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Haut of Gardena were Saturday evening guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Spaulding, Madison St.

Mrs. W. E. Naumann and son, Billy, of Tucson, Ariz., were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mosley of Ward St. last week while Mr. Naumann attended business conferences in Los Angeles.

This reporter has been asked to remind readers of this column of the reception to be held at the Recreation Hall on Thursday, Jan. 31, for Rev. Bowling, new pastor of the Methodist Community Church. All people in the community are cordially invited to attend the affair since it is a get-acquainted party. Time is 7:30 p.m.

Another example of the fine opportunities given our youngsters in the Grammar School here in Walteria, was the trip which Mrs. Showler's fifth grade class enjoyed on Friday, Jan. 25, when they took a trip to Knott's Berry Farm. There they explored their sack lunches and the old Ghost Town. This was in conjunction with their present studies of early California pioneer days.
