

PREPARATION FOR DECORATION . . . So much must be done to insure the success of a big dance that members of committees must busy themselves long before the actual event. Above, members of the Mothers Club of Nativity Catholic Church put finishing touches on decorations for their benefit dance Feb. 16 in American Legion hall. Proceeds will purchase new equipment for the school. Seated at the home of Mrs. Milton J. Boudreaux, 812 Amador Ave. are, left to right, Mmes. John F. Podgurski, John Pawlicki, Arthur Gross and Boudreaux. (Herald photo)

HAVE A COOKIE? . . . Torrance area Girl Scouts and Brownies are continuing to ask this all-important question as their annual cookie sale to aid work of the Scouts goes into its second week. The girls will continue to sell the delicious biscuits through Feb. 23. Looking over one of the boxes with Mrs. A. B. Cowie, seated, president of the Torrance PTA Council are, left to right, Dody Laney, Brownie from El Nido; Judy Wolfe Jr., High Scout from Narbonne; JoAnne Weber, Torrance High Sr. Scout and Janice Baker, Intermediate Scout from Narbonne. To Observe Founder's Day

"The Good of the Past Builds the Best for Tomorrow" will be the theme of Seaside PTA's Founders Night celebration at 8 tonight in the school auditorium. Interesting speeches on the agenda include "The Significance of Founder's Day" by Mrs. Paul Roettger and the "School Bond Election" by Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of schools. Two life memberships will be awarded by Mrs. Henry Miller. Also on the evening's program is an election of the nominating committee and a film about the common cold, to be shown by Earl Eckert. Lloyd Reist's instrumental class will present several numbers.

Giannis Fete Shrine Group

A group of Shriners and their ladies were entertained recently at the Gianni Gardens on W. 182nd St., in Gardena by Alberto D. Gianni, president of El Toga Shrine Club, and Mrs. Gianni with a steak dinner followed by entertainment and dancing. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chet Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. George Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cutigan, Miss Catherine Chervasi, Joe Chervasi, Mrs. Velda Lorraine Curtin and Harry Hammond Beall.

New PTA Unit To Be Formed

Crenshaw School Parents Council will join other groups in Torrance Council PTA at the organization's next meeting, March 5, when new officers will be elected. The group, new to this area last year, has been presided over by H. J. Sheffield. Its final meeting as a "council" took place Feb. 6 at the school.

JR. BAND TO MEET

Junior Mission Band of First Lutheran Church will meet Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. All children between the ages of six and 13 are invited to join. The group is a branch of the Women's Missionary Society and is organized to do mission work.

COUNTY COUNCILS TO PRESENT CIVIC SAFETY WORKSHOP

A community safety workshop will be presented by the Safety Committee of the County Federation of Co-ordinating Councils Tuesday from 9 until noon at First Congregational Church, Sixth and Hoover Sts., Los Angeles.

Speakers will include Dr. Harry Dietrich, staff member of Children's Hospital; Capt. Edgar B. Clemens, Los Angeles City Fire Prevention Bureau and Dr. Charles Sebastian, staff member of Georgia Street Receiving Hospital.

Judge A. J. Bernhardt of Los Angeles Municipal Court will speak at the luncheon which will follow the program.

GREENWOOD STUDENTS HAVE VALENTINE DANCE IN FERN CAFETERIA

A romantic atmosphere permeated the Fern Ave. School cafeteria Friday evening when eighth grade students from Greenwood School gathered for a St. Valentine's dance.

Planning and sponsoring the festive evening were members of Frank Brentwood's room, headed by a committee including Jill Moore, Marlene Svenson, Archie Thomas, Jerry Hughes, Jack Barber and Jack Anderson.

Committees were set up by this group to plan other details of the dance. Red and white hearts with contrasting ruffles, bands of hearts around the walls and a large cupid were originated and made by the decorating committee. Linda Thistle, Carol Krist, Diane Atkins, Marilyn Sanders, Marlene Svenson, Bob Lewis, Jerry Hughes, Jack Barber, Jack Anderson and Tony Ward.

Stanley Hakmiller and Jill Moore were host and hostess, greeting people at the door and starting the dances. Invitations to the other eighth grade rooms were sent by Gary Litaker, Robert Buresch, Diane Atkins and Marlene Svenson.

Members of the refreshment committee baked cakes for the party in the home economics room and were responsible for serving. On the committee were Pat Kline, Norma Rowe, Diane Svenson.
