OLD MEETS THE NEW... County construction equipment is shown on the rough roadbed of new Crenshaw Blvd., only a short distance from the joining point with the old highway, just south of Pacific Coast Hwy., at the Torrance-County boundary line. When completed, Crenshaw will be a Los Angeles to the ocean highway, traversing the heart of the area here. (Staff photo).

Bike Ride Fall injures Girl

Katherine Schott, 12, was injured when she fell off her bike and struck her head on the curb while riding to school yesterday morning in front of 2313 Eldorado Ave.

She was rushed to the Acacia Medical Center by Figueredo-Miller ambulance where Dr. R. A. Stetson treated her for multiple abrasions of the arms and legs and slight concussion. Katherine, who lives at 1407 Crenshaw Blvd., was taken home by her mother. Police Officer John Maestri handled the reports.

LADY PRINCIPALS

Only about 8 per cent of the principals of United States public high schools are women.

Strip Residents Take Educators 'by Storm'

A dozen community representatives who "laid it on the line" Monday night before the Los Angeles City Board of Education in seeking a higher priority for the proposed Narbonne High School indicated today that they expect a "favorable response."

It had been reported that 600 high school, to be financed by funds from a $148,000,000 bond issue next June, was to be delayed for four or five years.

Mrs. Don Wolf, Shoestring Strip resident and Narbonne PTA member acted as spokesman for the group.

"If we are going out and sell this bond issue, we want to know what we are going to get and when we are going to get it—and not five years from now."

Service Held for 28 Year Resident

George Samuel Jolley, 83, a resident here for 28 years, was interred at Inglewood Park Cemetery Monday. He died last Friday in General Hospital.

The Elder Charles R. Hall, Seventh Day Adventist, conducted the services held in the Stone and Myers Chapel.

Survivors include his wife, Martha; a daughter, Mrs. Beatrice Ordway; a son, William; five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mr. Jolley was formerly employed at the P. E. shops.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS HOLD SPECIAL EVENT

In observance of the holy season of Lent, Catholic Daughters of America courts of the Los Angeles area will hold a day of recollection at St. John's Academy, Sunday March 16.

Arrangements for the day are being made by Mrs. Frank J. Farrell, archdiocesan share-the-faith chairman. Reservations should be made with her.

After the meeting, Mrs. Wolf said, some members of the Board contacted her and indicated they were favorably impressed with the presentation. Included in the delegation were L. J. MacArthur, president of the Lomita Chamber of Commerce, and H. T. Unander, head of the Shoestring Strip Civic Association. Other attending from this locality were Mrs. Minot Rugg, Lomita, Narbonne PTA; Mrs. Amanda Bonwell, principal Hall-dale School; Mrs. George Blackmon, Shoestring Strip, Narbonne PTA; Mrs. H. Heibert, Shoestring Strip, Narbonne PTA; Mrs. W. E. Sidwell, Shoestring Strip, Narbonne PTA; Mrs. C. C. Devore, president, Hall-dale PTA; Mrs. Una Rusk, Shoestring Strip, Narbonne PTA; Mrs. G. A. Ford, Lomita, Narbonne PTA; Mrs. Harry Kaempfer, Lomita, Narbonne PTA and G. A. Carroll, Lomita Businessman, teacher.

Oxy Senior In Who's Who

William W. Carstens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Carstens, 1452 Post Ave., is one of twenty-one students in the senior class at Occidental College who have been selected for inclusion in the 1952 edition of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," Dr. Arthur Coons, Occidental president, announced recently.

Carstens graduated from Torrance High School and is now majoring in Commerce and Finance at Oxy.

'Paddy' Ryan Rejoins Alter Realty Firm

C. J. "Paddy" Ryan has rejoined the staff of the Alter Realty firm, Gerald L. Alter, president, said this week. Ryan was the first president of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board. "Paddy" Ryan opened and operated the first branch office for the Alter concern in 1948 at 1425 W. Carson St., which he operated for 2½ years. He was Alter's first salesman. The Alter firm now has more than 20 salesmen and 4 branch offices.
