Perry PTA Compliments
Two Past Presidents
In Founder's Program

Highlighting the Perry PTA Founder's Day meeting last Thursday was the presentation of handkerchief corsages to two past presidents, Mrs. A. B. Cowie, now president of Torrance Council PTA, and Mrs. W. A. Wright, junior past president.

Mrs. A. C. Turner and W. Rehboldt were among guests present for the occasion. Children from the school presented a program of music and choral verse.

New Members To Be Feted

Invitations have been extended to members of First Methodist Church for a reception tomorrow evening at 7:30 in the ladies' parlors honoring new members.

A brief program will be followed by a friendship hour and refreshments served by the WSCS. Membership committee members will be hostesses, and announce that friends of the church are invited. Rev. Clarence E. Miller, recently in Cleveland, will be present for the evening.

SPRING STYLES

Woman's Clubs Join For "Clock-Wise" Style Show

Feminine minds are lightly turning to thoughts of new spring clothes and to help them be fashion-wise the junior and senior Woman's Clubs of Torrance are sponsoring a fashion show at 8 p.m. March 19 in Civic Auditorium.

Proceeds from the show will go to charity and tickets for the event may be purchased from members of either group or at the box office for $1 plus tax. Mrs. W. B. Lewis is in charge of tickets.

Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass is general chairman of the event and Mrs. Edward Schwartz, of the Sam Levy Dept. Store, is serving as fashion coordinator. "Doris Dodson" originals will be featured, with several professional models joining club members modeling the clothes.

"Clock-Wise" fashions is the title given to the presentation which will be described by Sylvia Miller, a professional commentator. Jeanene Colombo will play several accordion solos during the evening. Members of the Junior Woman's Club are decorating the auditorium for the show and Senior Club women are planning buffet refreshments. Decorations will carry out an early spring theme in flowers.
