

Poodle Hairdo Wins Trophy for Local Stylist

We have our own champion hair stylist right in our midst, it was learned at the style show of the Coiffure Guild of Los Angeles and Hollywood held at the Ambassador Theater Sunday.

Awarded a very impressive looking trophy for designing the best poodle hairdo for a redhead was H. Martin, operator of the House of Beauty at 25217 1/2 Normandie Ave.

Modeled by Gloria Benedict, Martin's hairdo competed with the best in the business as more than 1000 beauty operators and hair stylists crowded the theater to see what a poodle can do for redheads, blondes, brunettes, children, and oldsters.

The Martin Poodle was judged best among the redheads.

Youth Band Orders New Uniforms for Cadet Band

New uniforms for the 50-member Cadet Band, part of the Torrance Area Youth Band organization, have been ordered and will be here in time for the annual Youth Band Parade next month, it was reported yesterday by James Van Dyck, director of the band.

The Cadet uniforms will feature the same color combinations now in use by the Youth Band and by the All-Girl Baton Corps. Distinguishing feature will be the overseas cap of maroon and gray.

Orderings exist in each of the three units of the Torrance Area Youth Band, Van Dyck said. Those interested may call Van Dyck at Torrance 3991-W or write to the Torrance Area Youth Bands at Box 548, Torrance.

Beach Attorney Enters Contest Against Shidler

Walker N. Anderson, 42-year-old prosecuting attorney of Manhattan Beach, entered the race against John A. Shidler for Office No. 1 of the South Bay Municipal Court just before the deadline last Friday. He will be the only one opposing the popular judge at the June 3 primary.

Filing for Office No. 2 of the court have been Judges Otto B. Willett, of Torrance; D. Clifford Higgins, of Manhattan and Colamer A. Bridge of Hermosa.

Torres in the new court will be for six years, beginning Jan. 1, 1953. Salary for the first two years will be $12,500 a year and then will be increased to $15,000 a year.

Civilians, New Service Club Being Formed

The formation of what may become Torrance's fifth service club was being sparked this week by Frank S. Selover, executive secretary of the Harbor Area Employees Council, in whose office an organizational meeting was held earlier this week.

The new club is to be called the Civilians.

Among those helping organize the club are Bob Owens and Warren Perry.

Selover also helped organize the Lions Club here seven years ago.

Lions to Visit Tijuana Club

Twenty-one members of the Torrance Lions Club will head for south of the border next Tuesday afternoon for a joint meeting that night with the Tijuana, Mexico, Lions Club.

The local service club members will leave from the small park-like triangle at Sartori and Marcelina Aves. at 3 p. m. and will return late Tuesday night, according to Walt Schaefer, chairman of the trip.

A regular meeting of the club will be held at noon on Tuesday when a member of the famed Flying Tigers will trace the history of the airline for the Lions Club members.

Other dates on the calendar include: Student Speakers Contest, March 18; Inter-School Club meeting, March 24, and the Anniversary Party at Vivian Lairds March 25.

Board Hires New Teacher

One new teacher was hired, an acting vice-principal appointed, and six school system workers employed by Board of Education members at Tuesday's meeting.

Alleen Mae Young was hired as an elementary teacher for the remainder of the 1951-52 school year.

And, Mrs. Margaret Denmarsh became the school system's first woman administrator when she took the post for an acting vice-principal's job at the Seaside School. She previously was a principal in another school system.

Other personnel hired included: V. J. Casavan, custodian; T. W. McDonald, groundsman; M. E. Nelson, custodian; Frank Olinger, custodian, and M. J. Parrino, bus driver-utility.

Groundsman Pete J. Dodos was granted a military leave. He was drafted into the service.

95-MPH IN 55-ZONE BRINGS JAIL STAY

Speeding 95 miles per hour in a 55-mile zone on Western Ave., near 203rd St., cost Albert R. Talark, 33, 3 days in the county jail this week.

City Judge Otto B. Willett imposed the jail sentence in lieu of any fine on Talark, because, he said, such a violation cannot be "bought off."

Willett also cracked down on drunk drivers and fined three $125 each. It was their first offense.

A MESSAGE TO TORRANCE Voters!
A MESSAGE TO TORRANCE Voters!
We are being confronted with another local election and, due to past events I think it is the serious duty of every citizen of Torrance who is qualified to vote to do so, and express his choice of Representative.
As one of our local papers stated, I will be a lone wolf and glad to run as such, which gives me an excellent chance, allowing me freedom of action, answerable only to the people.
This is an uphill fight for me; I have always fought for good legislation and sound Civil Service rules, and in the last year have been able to enjoy some measure of success for my efforts, against very tough opposition, and will continue on this course as long as I am active.
I am not backed by any organized group but do have the support and confidence of a great many individual citizens who are interested in a candidate who has the courage to represent Torrance as a whole, business and working people alike.
I intend to carry a clean campaign, as I have always done.
