

TELEVISION STARS... The four happy youngsters above are the newest topnotchers on the KTLA Playcrafters TV program—they appeared yesterday and the preceding Wednesday on the show, demonstrating interesting objects which other children can make from materials common in most kitchens. The youngsters watching Michael Cochran put finishing touches on a decorated paper cup are youngsters watching Michael Cochran put fifth and sixth grade students at Carson St. School. (Herald photo)

CDAs Enjoy Book Reviews, Discussion

Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, enjoyed a program of book reviews and a question and answer period during its meeting last week which was a Lenten observance in place of the usual social gathering.

Mrs. Keith Black reviewed "You Can Change the World," a former best-seller by James Keller about the Christopher (Christ-bearer) movement. "God in Our House" by Joseph A. Breig was reviewed by Mrs. Lyle J. O'Hara.

The court's chaplain, Rev. P. J. McGuinness, conducted the question and answer period. The program was presided over by Mrs. Frank J. Farrell. Hostesses assisting her were Meses. William Le Blanc, Robert Lewellen Sr. and Lawrence Derouh.
